

Massey-Harris Illustrated

A Journal of News and Literature for Rural Homes.

New Series, Vol. IV., No. 6.]

NOV.-DEC., 1900.

[Whole Series, Vol: XVIII., No. 6.

THE home-coming of the boys from South Africa has been about the most cheerful incident of the war, and during the past few weeks tunity to let go their pent-up patriotism in greetings to returning heroes. Doubtless many of our readers have been able to participate in one or other

SCENES IN TORONTO WHEN THE BOYS CAME HOME FROM SOUTH AFRICA: DECORATIONS AT THE CORNER OF VONGE AND KING STREETS

in numerous towns and villages all through Canada, but particularly in Ontario, the citizens have had oppor-

of these celebrations, whilst others would gladly have done so had circumstances permitted, and for the benefit