

GRAPE VINES.

(All Vines and Plants sent by mail postpaid at these prices.)

ROGERS' HYBRIDS Nos. 3, 4, 5, 15, and 22 (Salom); also Eumelan and Delaware—well-rooted 2 year vines 25 cts. each, $2.50 per dozen. As I intend planting nearly all my suitable ground with the following new varieties, I am able to supply my customers at lowest rates, and I cordially recommend them as

THE BEST NATIVE GRAPES.

MOORE'S EARLY Just the Concord over again, except that it is a little larger in berry, and two weeks earlier, also heavier bloom. probably the most profitable black grape that can be planted. One year vines 50 cts. each, $5 per dozen.

WORDEN—"The grape for the million"—an improved Concord seedling, as vigorous, healthy, hardy and productive as its parent, and ripening with (or a little before) the Hartford: the best black grape to follow Moore's Early: better than Concord for home use, and "beats it out of sight" for market. One year vines 25 cts. each, $2.50 per dozen.

POCKLINGTON—Very large in bunch and berry, and better than Concord in quality, destined probably, from its magnificent appearance and the ease with which it can be used, to drive all other tested white grapes out of the market during its season.

Mossra Stone—Vineyard who control the sale in Canada, price $400 a gold for the best samples of Pocklington at the Provincial Exhibition in 1883, and by their special grace I am allowed to send this to my customers, and offer the vines at $2.00 each, one year old.

JEFFERSON—A fine native cross between Concord and John with the delicious quality of the latter joined to the health of the Concord vine. Light red, large in berry and bunch, a good shipper and keeper—it is, I believe, the best red grape in America for home use or market: one year, $1 per vine.

SMALL FRUITS A SPECIALTY—SHAMPLESS STRAWBERRY—best out of thirty kinds tested, $1 per hundred. GREGG & CURRIENT RASPBERRIES—best of their respective kinds—$1 per dozen, $5 per hundred. TAYLOR BLACKBERRY, DOWNING GOOSEBERRY, LEE'S C. and other sorts cheap. Send for prices. Terms Cash—no order of less than $1. Address—
