> St. Mary's, Frenchtown, Clare, Friday, 31st July, 1846.

DEAR SIR,

I had the honour of receiving your Letter of the 7th inst., this morning whilst I was engaged in he duties of the Episcopal Visitation in the Church f St. Mary ; and although I sit down at the earlist moment to write to you a line in reply, I regret o find that my communication cannot by any posibility reach you on to-morrow, as you have so arnestly desired.

should be known as clearly as possible on the subject to which you have called my attention.

Since my arrival in Nova Scotia I have always entertained the greatest respect for Lord Falkland, as the representative of our most gracious Sovereign. The same respect, and for the same reason, I shall ever continue to feel for his successors in the Government, and to inculcate by word and example amongst that portion of the people who are confided

But independently of this conscientious duty, I am happy to embrace the present opportunity of testifying my high personal esteem for his Lordhe received a copy of an Address to Lord Falkland ship, and of acknowledging the courtesy and which he was requested to sign. The following kindness I have invariably experienced at his

> I will add my conscientious belief that as far as the members of my own communion in the Province are concerned, his Lordship was sincerely disposed to render them impartial justice, and to recognise all their legitimate claims.

> I have never shrunk from the avowal of those sentiments and I take a pleasure in repeating them now on the eve of His Lordship's departure, that you may give them whatever publicity you please.

> I fear, however, that if I appended my humble signature to the Address which you have enclosed I should depart from a principle that has been always sacred with me-namely a total abstinence I am anxious, however, that my sentiments/from all political excitement.
