The average young woman does not object to a young man stealing something from under her very nose.

Chinese Emperor: What news? Chinese General: We have met the enemy, and they are hours—behind us.

Alberta: I believe you call yourself an advanced woman, dear? Alethea: Yes, my love. Alberta: Then you may tip the waiter, dear.

Doctor: You have an excess of adipose tissue, madame. Patient: Good gracious, doctor! do you suppose that's what makes me so fat?

The man who asks if it's cold enough for you is the same chap who worried you to death six months ago by asking if it was hot enough for you.

"What warrant have you for thinking that Shakespeare was a broker?" "Oh, none; only the fact that he has furnished so many stock quotations."

The girls will have a chance next year. It will be the last leap year for eight years. The leap years which fall in the last year of a century are not counted, so there will be only 28 days in the February of 1900.

"Henry," she said, thoughtfully. "What is it?" responded the worried business man, somewhat shortly. "I wish you would rearrange your business a little bit. 'How?'" "So as to be a bear on the Stock Exchange instead of at home."

"I see," remarked Mr. Dismal Dawson, "that a feller down in Belleville has drank thirteen glasses of booze on a bet, and it kilt him." "No wonder," said Mr. Everett West; "thirteen is a sure hoodoo. He had order made it fourteen."

Lover: You are getting prettier every day. Sweet Girl: Just now I am living on brown bread and water to improve my complexion. Lover: How long can you keep that up? Sweet Girl: Oh, indefinitely. Lover: Then let's get married.

Pendennis: I've made an awful mistake. I sent a messenger boy up to Miss Cashley's with a lot of flowers, thinking it was her birthday, and now I learn that her birthday is to-morrow. Warrington: That's all right; the messenger boy may get there in time.

"Pa," asked Johnnie Wilkins, "what is a pathologist?" "He's a man who lays out paths in parks and elsewhere, my boy. Now don't bother papa any more. He's busy." "Well, I only want to know one more thing, papa," said Johnnie. "Well, what is it?" "What's a man-cipated woman?" "Why don't you reason it out yourself?" asked the father; "what does m-a-n spell?" "Man," said Johnnie. "Well, then, a man-cipated woman is a woman that thinks she's a man. Now run away."

JACKSONVILLE, Fla.,
18th August, 1894.

To whom it may concern—and that is nearly everybody.—This is to certify that I have used Coutts & Sons' "Acetocura" on myself, my family and hundreds of others during the past fifteen years for headache, toothache, rheumatism, sciatica, sprains, cuts, boils, abscesses, scarlet fever, chills and fever, and also with good success on myself (as I was able) in an attack of yellow fever. I can hardly mention all the ills I have known its almost magical power in curing, such as croup, diarrhoea, biliousness, and even those little but sore pests to many people—corns. The trouble is with patients, they are so fond of applying where the pain is—and not where directed, at the nerve affected. And the trouble with the druggists is that they also want to sell "Something just as good," which very often is worse than useless.

Wishing you every success in your new establishment, and that a more enlightened public may appreciate the blessings of your Acetocura, is the fervent wish of

Yours truly,

CAPT. W. M. SOMERVILLE.
