

ARTICLE V

If either of the contracting parties considers it desirable to modify any provision or provisions of this Agreement or its Annex, it shall notify the other contracting party of the desired modification and such modification may be made by direct agreement between the competent aeronautical authorities of both contracting parties to be confirmed by exchange of notes between the contracting parties.

ARTICLE VI

(A) If any dispute arises between the contracting parties relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement or of its Annex, the contracting parties shall in the first place endeavour to settle it by negotiations between themselves.

(B) In the event of the contracting parties failing to reach a settlement by negotiation

(1) they may agree to refer the dispute for decision to an Arbitral Tribunal appointed by agreement between them, or to some other person or body, or

(2) if they do not so agree or if having agreed to refer the dispute to an Arbitral Tribunal, they cannot reach agreement as to its composition, either contracting party may submit the dispute for a decision to any tribunal competent to decide it which may hereafter be established within the International Civil Aviation Organization, or, if there is no such tribunal, to the Council of the said organization.

(C) The contracting parties undertake to comply with any decision given under paragraph 2 above.

ARTICLE VII

In the event of the conclusion of any general multilateral convention concerning air transport to which both contracting parties adhere, this Agreement shall be amended so as to conform with the provisions of such Convention.

ARTICLE VIII

Either contracting party may at any time give notice to the other if it desires to terminate this Agreement. Such notice shall be simultaneously communicated to the International Civil Aviation Organization. If such notice is given, the Agreement will terminate twelve (12) months after the date of receipt of the notice by the other contracting party, unless the notice to terminate is withdrawn by agreement before the expiry of this period. In the absence of acknowledgment of receipt by the other contracting party, notice shall be deemed to have been received fourteen (14) days after the receipt of the notice by the International Civil Aviation Organization.

ARTICLE IX

This Agreement and all contracts connected therewith shall be registered with the International Civil Aviation Organization set up under the Convention on Civil Aviation done at Chicago on December 7, 1944.

ARTICLE X

This Agreement shall come into force on the date of signature.
