

lawyer, the latter's fee will constitute a disbursement to be deducted by the consular officer.

Returns

23.34 Consular officers are required to send with their quarterly accounts, a return showing all sums received on account of estates which are administered by them or which pass through their hands.