

King, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie—Con.
Address in reply—Con.

Bennett; monopolizing the offices of the crown; Gilbertian element of comedy in the situation, 17; promises made by Mr. Bennett as leader of the Conservative party if he were returned to power; magna charta of Conservative promises; eight promises contained in "The Party Pledge"; article by Mr. Bennett in MacLean's Magazine of July 15 on "The Election Issues as I See Them," 18; Mr. Tom Moore on the psychology of unemployment; reflections on the Liberal party contained in Mr. Bennett's campaign speeches, 19; press report of Mr. Bennett's election speeches; world-wide unemployment conditions, 20; effect of decreased western wheat crop in 1929; picture of unemployment conditions presented to the country in Mr. Bennett's speeches; magnifying the unemployment situation; press reports of Mr. Bennett's campaign speeches; statement of Mr. Bennett on emigration to the United States, at Stratford on July 17, 21; inaccuracy of statements made during election campaign; speeches in the maritimes; 22; Mr. Bennett on tariff changes and economic conditions; the dairy-ing industry; speech at Regina in June, 23; and at Three Rivers; reports in press of western speeches, 24; Mr. Bennett's promise to end unemployment, 25; press reports of speeches at Montreal and Toronto; promise to enact new tariff laws, 26; making special appeals to particular classes throughout the country, 27; pledging the country to protection; oriental labour and Soviet coal; enacting legislation to give Canadians fair competition and an equal chance with their competitors, 28; export of newsprint and pulpwood; special pledge to agriculture; text of speeches delivered by Mr. Bennett at Winnipeg and at Calgary, 29; promises to assist in marketing and transportation of agricultural products, 30; promises with respect to stabilization of economic conditions; cattle exports; development of interprovincial trade and fuel policy; countervailing duties against Germany, 31; favoured nation treaties; Australian and New Zealand treaties; making extravagant and bountiful promises; Mr. Bennett on old age pensions;

King, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie—Con.
Address in reply—Con.

national old age pension law, 32; promises relating to transportation; Peace River railway outlet; Mr. Bennett's pledge of a national highway, 33; St. Lawrence waterway; the Chignecto canal; Crownsnest pass rates on the Hudson bay railway; the Mafeking cut-off; promising a second car ferry to Prince Edward Island; making Halifax and St. John national free ports, 34; bridges at St. John harbour and Lachine; further promises of public works; Sir Robert Borden on offering bribes to constituencies; attempting to influence the electorate at election times; relieving unemployment conditions, 35; Mr. Ramsay MacDonald on protection as a cure for unemployment; representing Canada at the Imperial conference; no mandate from the people, 36; the British preference; "blasting our way into the British market"; possibility of adjourning parliament in order to attend the imperial conference, 37; opposition affording opportunity to discuss unemployment; no opposition offered to cabinet ministers; holding Mr. Bennett to his pre-election promises, 38

Agricultural implements, duty, 562, 582

Business of the house, 57

Amendments in com. of ways and means, 535

Arrangements to facilitate prorogation, 574

Documents, tabling, 595

Eleven o'clock adjournment, 59, 479

Information, expedition of, 12

Precedence of government motions and orders, 5

Procedure with regard to, 57

Questions unanswered, 490

Campaign speeches and promises, 15-37, 68

Canadian representatives abroad, 192

Customs Act Amendment, 85, 195, 204, 213

Amdt. (Mr. Stewart, Edmonton), 266

Amdt., six months' hoist, 296

Customs Tariff Amendment bill, 453, 470, 501, 600

Customs tariff changes, 253, 306

Amdt. to M. of Mr. Bennett, 315

Prices, maintenance of, assurances, 576

Documents and correspondence, request, 11

Earthenware industry, 536

Election of Speaker, 2

Governor General's birthday, congratulations, 140

Halifax relief commission, 165

House of Commons distribution office, 488