

January Fourteenth 1921.

Hector Garneau, Esq.,
Chief Librarian,
City of Montreal.

Dear Mr. Garneau:-

I thank you very much for your letter of January 8th and most cordially reciprocate your wishes in the matter of our meeting and getting to know each other.

I wonder if you could come and have lunch with me at the University Club at 1 o'clock, or thereabouts, next Tuesday, the 18th. If you can, please telephone to me at the University.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.