BROOKLYN

February 25th, 1921.

Sir Arthur Currie,
McGill University,
Montreal, Canada.

My dear Sir Arthur:

The New York Graduates Society is planning to hold its annual dinner on April 2nd, and we are very anxious to have you join us as our guest of honor. We intend to have the ladies present, and we would be delighted to have Mrs. Currie come with you.

If you will be so good as to let me know if this date will be convenient to you or, if not, will you set a later date. We have found from experience that we are always able to have a better attendance of out of town men on Saturday than on any other day.

We also plan to ask Sir Auckland Geddes to come to New York when we know what the date will be.
