

From the history of our past let us thank God and take courage. The outlook is as bright as the promises of God. The following words of our founder may fittingly close this sketch. "Tell my sisters to be faithful, we have not long to labor for the Master and those things which perish with the using, we can make imperishable as offerings to the Master we love."

At Port Williams, a branch of the First Cornwallis Baptist Church, a W. M. A. S. of 11 members was organized by the late Miss Johnston, of Dartmouth in 1888. Mrs. T. E. Smith was chosen President. At her death Mrs. Daniel Cosgwell filled the office. She was followed in 1895 by Mrs. C. H. Martell, who was a great source of strength to the society. Since she left, Miss Addie Cogswell has been President. Last year the sum of $66.54 was contributed. The society has been growing and has now 36 members. Although entirely independent of our society at Canard, we are one in aim and purpose, and are working for the same Master "whom having not seen we love."

In addition to her work in the Aid Society, Mrs. Martell organized a Mission Band at Upper Canard in Sept. 1900. There are now over thirty members and the prospect is encouraging. A Birth
