

INDEX

See 295,361; wheat and oat crop, 1879, 294; table of property values, 1865-1879, 295; legislature appropriates $25,000 in aid of drainage, 432; drainage convention, at Crookston, 432; iron mines of, *212

Minnesota and Dakota, built for trade with Orient, *190

Minnesota & Pacific Railroad Co., chartered, 134

Minnesota Historical Society, extracts of address by Mr. Hill before, 275

Minnesota Railroad Commission report on railroad situation, 1881, 328

"Minnesota Rate Cases," decision of United States Supreme Court, *278

Minnesota State Fair, address by Mr. Hill at, *233, 234

Minnesota State Historical Society, extracts of Mr. Hill's address before, *75

Minnesota Transfer, incorporated, 392

Mississippi River, early navigation on, 27, 40, 46, 47

Mississippi River Packet Co., agency of, 95

Mississippi River steamboat transportation, decline of, 96

Monetary question, free silver fallacy, 485, 492

Montana, rapid growth of, 378; copper deposits at Butte, 378; coal mines being developed, 378; railroads demanded, 379; St. Paul, Minnesota & Minneapolis Railroad reaches Great Falls, 381; coal mines developed, 399, 400

Montana Central Railroad Company organized, 388; taken into the Manitoba system, 394, 411; roadway completed, 436

Morgan, J. P., letter to, on silver question, 496; leader in Northern Pacific reorganization, *5, 23; letter to, explaining Mr. Hill's interest in Northern Pacific consolidation, 28; letter to, on wasteful railroad construction, 40; in the C. M. & St. P. and C. B. & Q. negotiations, 115; efforts to prevent control of Northern Pacific by Harriman, 149; names Northern Pacific board of directors at request of both parties, 154

Napoleon, Mr. Hill admires of, *404

"Nation's Future, The," address by Mr. Hill, *234

New Westminster Southern Company incorporated, 459

New York Herald, publishes in full Mr. Hill's address "The Nation's Future," *239; interview with Mr. Hill on Panic of 1907, 266

New York Sun, account of Mr. Hill's address before Conference of Governors on conservation at Washington, *241

New York Times, excerpt from editorial on death of Mr. Hill, *326

Nichols, Edward T., member board of trustees controlling mining properties, *228

Nicollet, Joseph N., explorations with John C. Fremont, 21

Northern Pacific Railroad Company, charter granted by Congress, 103, 144, 154; construction begun, 145; crippled by panic of 1873, 145; attitude in acquiring other railroad properties, 148; leaves Lake Superior and Mississippi, 157; acquires St. Paul & Pacific, 158; in bad financial straits, 165; sold at foreclosure and reorganized, 193; negotiations with Canadian Government and plans against St. Paul & Pacific, 222; controversy and final agreement with St. Paul & Pacific, 266; Henry Villard becomes president, 333; through line completed, 333; consolidates with Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, 333; difficulties of 1893, 444; rate war with Great Northern, 446; receivers appointed, *3; amount of outstanding stock and bonds prior to reorganization, 17; opposition by the public to terms of reorganization, 17; Supreme Court decides against consolidation with Great Northern, 19, 22; new plan of reorganization, 23, 24; stock and bond issue of new company, 24; associated with Oregon Railway & Navigation Co., 32; terms of purchase of Burlington, 124; Harriman stock corner, 146; new board of directors named by Mr. Morgan at request of both parties, 154; reaches Oregon points through Portland, Spokane & Seattle Railway, 253; letter from Mr. Hill to Morgan firm on Puget Sound conditions, 257

Northern Pacific stock corner, *105

Northern Securities Company, events leading to formation, *48, 57; Mr. Hill's own account of, in St. Paul Globe, 103; incorporated, 157; reasons for its formation, 159; amount capital stock authorized, 167; suits commenced by State of Minnesota and in United States Circuit Court at St. Paul, 169; decisions for and against, 172; dissolution announced, 176; scheme of distribution of stock, 177; litigation begun by Harriman interests to prevent pro rata distribution, 178; pro rata plan upheld by all courts, 182