EXCELLENT BILL AT THE PARK THEATRE

An excellent program is presented at the Park Theatre for the last three days of the week. The bill is opened by Rene Grigg Jack, "The Girl with the Bartone Voice." Miss Jack has a beautiful voice, and was recalled many times. "Dave Vine and Lucile Temple," the latter a former burlesque favorite, in a comedy act, were well liked. Darrel, a West Indian in a military review, has a good act and pleased his audiences. French and Lewis in a high class operatic singing act, rendered many beautiful songs, and were a big hit. The three prize-winners of Wednesday's amateur contest also appeared, and will appear for the remainder of the week. The ninth series of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be shown tonight.

Overseas Juniors line-up against Wychew Juniors at Little York on Saturday, at 3.15, will be as follows: Armstrong, Nightingale, Stone, Gledhill, Allan, Connell, Carter, Slater, Rice, and Rodman and Robinson.
