

"My punishment is greater than I can bear. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth."

Cain, after being banished forever from the face of God, became an out-

CAIN AND ABEL, SACRIFICING.

"And the Lord had respect unto Abel, and to his offering; but unto Cain, and his offering, he had not respect.—GEN. iv. 4, 5.

cast. He left the home of his father and mother, and for many years wandered over the land, until at length he settled in a country called Nod, where it is related he took a wife and founded a great city.