

- Vice President, powers of, reported, 507, 508; mode of choosing, 509; to be president of Senate, debated, 527; agreed to, 528.
- Virginia plan, 22; debated, 27; committee of whole, report on, 99; favorably reported, 127; as reported, 127a.
- Voting, right of. See suffrage.
- War, power to make, discussed, 418; to declare, agreed to, 419; clause to include letters of marque, 512; States may not engage in, 509.
- Washington, George, Va., attends, 17; elected president of convention, 17; speaks for increased representation, 579; extract of letter from Gen. Knox, 585; extracts of letters from John Hay, 586, 587; letter from James Madison, 593.
- Weights and measures, power to fix, agreed to, 412.
- Western country, representation of, 249; dangers from, 250; discrimination against, rejected, 252; encouragement of, opposed, 480; claim to, 492.
- Western States, admission of, 487.
- Williamson, Hugh, N. C., attends, 17; opposes election of executive by electors, 42; moves impeachment of executive, 48; seconds motion for ineligibility of executive for second term, 287; favors six years' term for executive, 288; proposes electors for executive based on number of representatives, 289; proposes seven years' term of ineligibility for reelection for executive, 312; favors election of executive by the people, 322; moves postponement of question of successor to President, 472; objects to election of President by Senate, 510, 515; moves eventual election of President when less than one-third vote for one man, 516; moves that electors not voting be not counted, 517; favors separate provision for reelecting President, 519; moves six years' term for executive, 521; moves seven years' term for executive, 521; seconds motion that electors meet at seat of government, 522; proposes two-thirds vote of legislature for effective acts, 69; favors small Senate, 70; approves proportional representation in legislature, 83; favors State compensation of legislature, 146; favors preserving State governments, 164; suggests six years for Senators, 165; favors compensation to Senators, 172; brings up question of eligibility of Senate to offices, 173; opposes ineligibility of Senators to State offices, 173; contends for equal sovereignty of States, 176; favors compromise on question of representation in Senate, 204; opposes report of committee on representation, 210; favors numbers as basis of representation, 224; on committee on representation, 226; thinks Southern representation too small, 227; approves counting blacks as three-fifths, 234; thinks representation of New Hampshire too high, 246; favors small Senate, 310; opposes requirement of previous residence for members of legislature, 357; moves representation by taxation, 358; thinks executives may fill vacancies in Senate, 364; proposes vacancies in Senate be arranged by legislatures, 364; favors long term citizenship for Senate, 370; favors property qualification for legislature, 375; proposes nine years' citizenship for service in legislature, 384, 385; opposes eligibility of members of legislature to offices, 398; insists on powers of legislature to tax imports, 480; agrees to ineligibility of members of legislature to new offices, 506; moves ineligibility of members of legislature to new or increased offices, 506; motion lost, 506; thinks representation too small, 514; moves reconsideration of number of representatives, 538; moves reconsideration of representation, 561; opposes power of legislature to negative State laws, 76; would modify mutual negative of both branches of legislature, 347; moves three-fourths of legislature to overrule President's negative, 408; opposes negative on State laws, 456; moves two-thirds to overrule negative of President, 554; thinks money bills should originate in Senate, 217; moves to reconsider question of money bills, 363; favors provision for money bills, 365; favors money bills in first branch of legislature, 383; moves to postpone money bill question, 404; suggests convention has no funds to pay clergyman, 182; favors census, 232; suggests oath to support State governments, 304;