This game opened badly, for Clymer missed the target at first base, and the Cargo was landed safely at third. Knoll put up a fly to Carr, and, altho Eustace drew a pass, Dolan fanned and Schoch popped one to Schaub. In the second innings Carr failed to hold Duggleby's throw of Curley's short hit. A double play immediately followed on a fly bunt to Duggleby. Springfield took the lead in the third on a base hit by G. Bannon, who was advanced to second on Cargo's sacrifice, and to third on Knoll's out to left, scoring on a passed ball. This proved their only passage over the plate, tho they had the bases full when G. Bannon struck out as the third man out in the fourth innings. In the night two were left on bases. Toronto got past first base but once in the first six innings. Carr doing the trick on a two-bagger, altho Tom Bannon attempted in vain earlier, after getting a clean single. In the seventh a double by Grey, singles by Carr, Lynch and Clymer, a sacrifice by Bemis and an error by Curley let three runs in, and the game was won. The victory was nalled down by two more earned runs in the ninth on Carr's pretty bunt, a triple by Lynch, with singles by Clymer and Schaub, the side being retired by a double-play. Afternoon Game,

The afternoon game was a chapter of accidents. Springfield got nine runs in the second after the side should have been retired, assisted by a wild pitch and a base on balls. It was this way: Dolan bunted safely, while Alloway and Carr were not agreed as to who should cover the bag. Then Schoch sacrificed Dolan to second. Curley hit a clean one over Clymer's head, and Dolan was on third. If Carr's good intentions had been carried out the side would have been retired and the storm which came immediately later from an apparently clear sky would have been averted. Carr captured Tucker's first bounder, which nearly got over his head, and in sending it to Clymer for an easy double the ball hit Curley, and the fireworks began, which resulted as above.

In the fourth innings the visitors added one on Dolan's double and Clymer's wild throw of Schoch's grounder. In the fifth, after two men were out, Lynch let a grass cutter go by, Knoll singled and the score was 11 to 0. In the ninth, two singles by Knoll and Eustace, and Trefer hit by pitched ball, assisted by a wild throw by Clymer and Grey's excusable muff of Woods' long drive, added two more, leaving the bases full, making it the unlucky 13.

The home team got going in the first linnings. T. Bannon singled, but was caugat at second on Grey's easy one to Curley. Carr doubled, but was left at second. 'lymer got a single in the second and J. Bannon one in the sixth, but the others retired in one, two, three order on pop files. In the seventh the Torontos made their rally as $\forall r\text{ legend to that effect as in the morning game, and would have scored more, but for a double play by the visitors on a punish hit by Roach after Lynch had made a clean single. However, four singles followed and two runs were tailled. In the elgith Cargo's fumble and Lynch's double added one, while in the ninth six men faced the pitcher, and two runs were netted on Eustace's wide throw of Alloway's grounder, a pass to J. Bannon and hits by T. Bannon and Grey.

The Capitals Defeated the Cornwall Team at Ottawa by 9

Hurrah, hurrah, we are champions again. Hurrah, hurrah, bring out some better men. We are not afraid to meet the lion and beard him in his den.
Hurrah! we are champions again! So sang the numerous supporters of the Torontos when they defeated the Tecu sehs and won from them the championship pennant at Rosedale by 3 goals tol, winning on the two games by a majority of 1 goal. The crowd was a real holiday one, num-bering upwards of 6000, it being by far the largest of the season, and Toronto had the sympathy of the majority. The game it-

TORONTOS CITY CHAMPIONS NO CURE, NO PAY

My Electric Belt is a positive cure for weak men. It gives the vitalizing power of electricity direct to all weak parts, developing the full, natural vigor of manhood. It removes all the effects of youthful errors and excesses forever. I want every weak man, every man who is not the man he should be, to use it, and to tell his friends of its surprising effects.

PAY FOR IT WHEN CURED

After you are cured you can pay me, and then the price will be only half what is asked for the old-style belts, which have been blistering and burning the backs of their wearers for the last thirty years. My belt is three times as strong as any other belt sold, and is the only one that does not blister the flesh. Call to-day, or write for my 80-page book,

The Heat Killed Brune.

YesterJay's tropical heat was responsible for the death of at least one valuable animal, and to-day Sergt. Donnelly, caretaker at the rife ranges, mourns the death of his fine Great Dane, "Bruno," known so well to every habitue of the ranges, The dog was a great favorite, and most intelligent. Tho a docile animal, he was a wardog, and quite at home when the builets few thickest.
