OPENING TONIGHT AT SPRINGBANK

Clever Lyceum Comedy Company to Present "The Circus Girl."

Tonight marks the opening of sum mer amusement at Springbank Park, when the Lyceum Comedy Company, under the direction of Harry Sedley, will present the highly successful and most entertaining comedy of English life, "The Circus Girl."

This amusing farce served as a vehicle for Willie Edouin, and on this side of the water for no less a light than Nat Goodwin.

In Mr. Sedley's scrapbook are found many most laudatory criticisms, and one amusing story of the farce. In one portion of the play Arthur Hummingtop (Harry Sedley) is trying to conceal the Circus Girl (Miss Edith Perchet) in his study, so as to keep the fact of her presence from his ever watchful mother-in-law, Mrs. Gillebrand (Miss Mai Wells), when suddenly the "Girl" is heard whistling behind the closed door, just as Mrs. Gillibrand and her spoiled son (Clyde Bates) enter the room. Hummingtop is at his wits' end, when a man in the audience, so wrought up over the situation and unable to longer contain himself, jumped up and yelled, "For heaven's sake shut her up, Arthur, shut her up." The comedy runs for three nights and will be followed for the balance of the week by the beautiful comeaydrama, "Queen's Evidence." F. L. Evans' orchestra has been en-

LABOR PROBLEM"

Rev. D. S. Hamilton Deals With Subject at the First Congregational Church.

The subject of Rev. D. S. Hamilton's sermon at the First Congregational Church last evening was "The Church and the Labor Problem." Taking as his text Galatians v., 14: "All the law is fulfilled in one word even in this; thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Mr. Hamilton first spoke of the fact that there was a real labor question to consider notwithstanding the fact that there were still found those who belittle its importance. The discontent in the industrial sphere which resulted from time to time in strikes or lockouts, and the widening gap between rich and poor, bore testimony to the reality of the problem. The question should be approached, the preacher thought, in an unbiased manner with the welfare of society as a whole in thought, in an unbiased manner with the welfare of society as a whole in mind and not from the standpoint of SLASHED CHUM; and particular class.
