SAYS CIVILIANS MURDERED.

London, Jan. 21.—"During the first afteen days of this year," says a bulletin forces of the English Government have achieved the following success: "Fourteen civilians murdered, including four prisoners, two children, and one woman; thirty-two wounded, including seven women; six towns shot up; forty houses and eleven shops wholly or partially destroyed; seven men tortured or flogged, and one creamery, one factory and two public halls destroyed."

BEATRICE, LANGUISHING IN JAIL, SMOKES CIGARETTES, DRINKS TEA AND LONGS FOR MAN SHE LOVES

Philadelphia, Pa. Jan. 22.—Miss Beatrice Hebert, the 29-year-old globe-trotting Canadian now under arrest in Moyamensing Prison for forcing her attentions on William Zinser, assistant manager of a tourist agency here, continues to pine for her "Will" between continuous puffs of cigarettes and tea drinking in her cell. No word has been received at Washington concerning deportation papers for her return to Montreal.

According to records at the Philadelphia Hospital, where the lovemad woman was detained last September, when she was previously arrested for annoying Zinser, she is the victim of a mental alimert. Physicians who examined her say she is perfectly normal on all sub-jects, save Zinser. As proof of this, they assert she shows evidence of a careful educasnows evidence of a careful educa-tion, speaking and writing German. NEW NURSES' HOME IS PLANNED FOR THE ONTARIO HOSPITAL

Work Will Start Soon As the Appropriation Passed.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS

Planned At Government Institution in the Near Future.

Among various improvements in con-tempiation at the Ontario Hospital is the provision of a new home for the nurses, and this will be one of the first extensions made when the necessary ap-propriation has been passed. The pol-icy of adding improvements to the older buildings and bring them thoroughly up-to-date, while at the same time building buildings and bring them thoroughly upto-date, while at the same time building new ones, as necessity demanded, has been productive in keeping the institution in line with modern requirements.
For instance, it is intended to overhaul and renew the plumbing and sanitation of the main building as soon as possible, and there are other similar things to be done. This will involve considerable expenditure, but will be of great benefit to all concerned.

One of the features of this institution is the farm. Those who visited the Western Fair, held in September last, will remember the striking display of fruit and vegetables from the Ontario Hospital shown in the Horticultural Building. The most advanced methods are used in the cultivation of fruit, vegetables and field crops, and the institution's "model farm" is one to be proud of.

Another pleasing feature of the hospital is its environment of woodland. Dr. Robinson, the superintendent, has taken a practical interest in tree-planting, and the results of his taste and foresight in this respect is seen in the fine clumps of Scotch pines, white pines, Norway spruce and other conlifers which delight the eye and afford shelter from the cold blasts in winter and the heat in summer. Apart from their aesthetic value, these trees will be a profitable asset in years to come, for their timber will be worth considerable money.

Misinformed On Some Points, Says Mrs. Gemmell.

The sub-executive of the Mothers' Clubs is not demanding the resignation of the board of education because the high school building question has not been settled, Mrs. Gemmell, the head of the executive said today. This impression arose from the statement of one of the trustees that if the deadlock continued there would be no other course than for the board to resign. "We don't want to see that. We are trying to break the deadlock by urging the trustees to come to a decision," she said. While giving Trustee Rowe credit for the fair manner in which he had championed his view of the matter, Mrs. Gemmell declared that his state-ment to the effect that the executive was not unanimous in its decision was

That a persistent effort is being made to keep local restaurants in first-class condition is indicated by the monthly report of R. H. Sanders, sanitary in-

Forty-four inspections of butcher shops were made. The majority were clean. One butcher had about 100 pounds of decayed beef hanging in his store, which was thrown into the garbage. Mr. Sanders stated that one insanitary practice was that of leaving on the hides of caives when sold to butchers. Most of such hides were covered with manure or droppings from the calf while in the stable.

Mr. Sanders inspected 36 Chinese the calf while in the stable.

Mr. Sanders inspected 36 Chinese laundries. All of them were fairly clean as far as the work rooms were concerned, but some of the living quarters were not in a sanitary condition. The proprietors were ordered to improve them, under threat of being closed.

Eight inspections of creameries showed them to be in fair condition.

Bakeshops were inspected nine-times.

The large shops are good but some smaller ones are not as sanitary as they might be, as they are not large enough to permit good work, the inspector said. Six hotels were examined. The kitchens and dining-rooms of two were good. The others have promised to make sanitary improvements.
