A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, attributes a great deal of his success to the following simple vegetable preparation:

One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Salsaparilla;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla.

Mix, shake well, and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Your druggist can supply the ingredients, and the mixture can be prepared at home at very little expense.

This, the doctor says, acts directly on the kidneys, assisting them to filter the poisons from the blood and expels same in the urine, at the same time restoring the kidneys to healthy, normal action.

We feel that a great many readers will be pleased to learn of this simple prescription, and knowing the ability of the physician whose formula it is, we do not hesitate to recommend it to any sufferer.

HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED.

So Bertie Gregory Alleged, in Suing W. R. Travers.

An action for $10,000 damages was yesterday commenced by "Count" Bertie Gregory against W. R. Travers for alleged conspiracy to injure him in his business.

Gregory claims that he entered into an arrangement with Travers, as manager of the Farmers' Bank, whereby Gregory was to buy horses and Travers was to honor his cheques and share in profits.

Gregory alleges that Travers suggested a scheme to purchase horses through the country and by dishonoring his notes to defraud the vendors of their purchase money. Because he refused to do so, he earned defendant's ill-will and has been harassed in every conceivable way. His affidavit says:

"On one occasion I was at my home when a man enquired for me and said: 'I am sent by Travers to say that he will have your life or your freedom.' The next morning I received an anonymous postcard saying: 'You have swindled one of our lodge. We shall either have your life or freedom. Death to the Jesuits, or you do not wish to have your life, if you leave to-day, forever, Canada. We shall be lenient and forget you; if not your life. We stand so high that no one will hurt us and all the money your sister may send you will be too late. J. X. B.'"

"The said defendant has instigated the police to prosecute me and I have been warned that I must give up my last chance. This is final. If you leave to-day, forever, Canada, we shall be lenient and forget you; if not your life. We stand so high that no one will hurt us and all the money your sister may send you will be too late. J. X. B.'"

NEW SAYING OF CHRIST RECOVERED IN EGYPT

Fragment Belongs to 16th Chapter of St. Mark—Destruction of Sin at Hand.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—The Daily News to-day says: A new saying of Christ's lost to the world for thirteen centuries and found in Egypt, was given to the world to-day by Prof. Henry A. Sanders, of the University of Michigan, addressing the members of the Archaeological Institute, now in session at the University of Chicago. The fragment is part of an old Bible dating back to the Moslem conquest of Egypt and on its face is so authentic as to disarm hostile criticism.

The long lost fragment belongs to the sixteenth chapter of the Gospel of St. Mark and follows the fourteenth verse. It relates to the story of Christ's appearance, following his death, to eleven of his apostles in Jerusalem.

With the new verse as the fourteenth in the Gospel of St. Mark the Bible reads:

"And they answered saying that this age of unrighteousness and unbelief is under the power of Satan who does not permit the things which are made impure by the (evil) spirits to comprehend the truth of God and His power. For this reason, 'reveal thy righteousness now,' they said to Christ, and Christ said to them: 'The limit of the years of the power of Satan has been fulfilled, but other terrible things are at hand, and I was delivered unto death on behalf of those who sin, and order that they may return to the truth and sin no more to the end that they may inherit the spiritual and indestructible glory of righteousness which is in heaven.'"

This newly discovered paragraph was known to Jerome, and the first few lines of it are cited in Latin translations. It has long been claimed that Mark xvi, 8-20, was an addition to the gospel borrowed from some other unknown gospel near the end of the second century. This new manuscript probably presents the original form of that part of the lost gospel which, mutilated, was added to the Mark text, and for the omission is quite apparent, as the new verse contains the statement that the destruction of sin in the world is near at hand.

"This idea is found in the Epistles of Peter and Paul, but the four gospels do not have it, and it is avoided by the later church writers."

Prof. Sanders declared that the new found manuscript also contains what is known as the liturgical ending of the Lord's Prayer.

The text was found, he said, by Charles L. Fraser, of Detroit, who was traveling in Egypt and searching for additions to his art collection.

Further Evidence Taken Concerning Construction of Company.

Frank Law of Law & Co. was sent up for trial on a charge of conspiracy by Magistrate Kingsford in the afternoon court yesterday. Bail of $20,000 was renewed.

Howard Beatty of St. Catharines knew the Highland Mary claims, Gordon Hodgins had sent him to Larder Lake to arrange the staking, but he found that the claims were not properly staked. He had spent $500 or $600 on the deal, but had nothing out of it. He did not know of any sale to Law & Co., nor had he received any money for these from any one.

He still retained his right and title to the properties.

Walter Abendroth was recalled. He explained a cheque for $500 he gave to the Ontario Mining News in June, as an advance made to the paper by Lockhart Russell.

A large number of letters from claimants enquiring about Highland Mary were put in as exhibits.

Edward B. Stockdale, assistant manager of the Trusts and Guarantee Co., said that his firm had acted as registrars and transfer agents of the Blue Bell stock.

The monies received from the sales of this stock went into Law & Co.'s special account, which amounted to $100,000 and were disbursed by cheques made by Law & Co.

Mr. Stockdale then went into the agreement with Law & Co. regarding the sale of "Lucky Boys" stock. One million shares of this mine were put on the market at 6 cents a share. The sale of Lucky Boys amounted to $67,500, which was also drawn out by Law & Co. within a short time after the sale of the mine.

Part of this money had gone to the Lucky Boys Mining Co. The company had an agreement with the Trusts and Guarantee Co., also, which provided for one-third of the treasury stock to be sold, and two-thirds of the W. L. Russell stock.

The mine was valued at $1,500,000, of which Russell owned $1,000,000; $500,000 worth of Silver Bird was bought up. Three accounts were opened, one for Russell, one for Law & Co., and one for the Silver Bird Mining Co. The cheques made by Russell against the Silver Bird Company were produced.

"Did the public know about these inside deals regarding these mines," asked his worship. "If they and went into it blind it is their own fault."

Crown Attorney Price argued that he did not think the public were aware of this, but Mr. Lennox explained that the advertisement showed that these treasury stocks amounted to 200,000 shares.

Recalled again Mr. Abendroth said that the last meeting of the executive of the Silver Bird was held last February. There had not been any general meeting of the shareholders.

Witness said that $15,000 was deposited to the credit of Silver Bird Cobalt Mining Co. in the Bank of Commerce at Cobalt. The rest of the company's deposits were made with the Trusts and Guarantee Co.
