CENTRAL BUILDINGS CHANGING HANDS

Adelaide and Richmond Realty Figure in Sales—Office Space in Demand.

Deals have been closed in the past few days for the transfer of several downtown buildings as a result of the general scramble for office space. The Canada Savings building, 41-43-45 East Adelaide street, has been sold by the Sterling Trust Corporation for $65,000. The building is a four-story structure of brick on a lot measuring 31 x 74 feet. It adjoins the Excelsior Life building, and has a dozen tenants, including the Globe Land Company. The D. G. Fitzgerald building at 122 West Richmond street has been sold to E. P. Henderson for $70,000. This property is on the north side of Richmond, between Bay and York, in a district where purchases have been frequent in the last few months. The building has four floors and a basement and the lot is 23 x 108 feet with the use of a lane on the east side, the law stationery firm of Newsome & Gilbert are one of the oldest tenants of the building. Messrs. Gibson Bros. were the brokers.

Messrs. J. H. Morin & Co., paints and varnishes, have bought the three-story brick warehouse at 54 Colborne street, from the Sterling Trust Corporation for $25,000. The purchasers have been tenants of the premises.

Half a dozen stores on Danforth avenue have changed hands in the last week and lots available for new structures have also been selling.

The Royal Bank has purchased the northwest corner of Danforth and Woodbine avenues and will shortly begin the erection of a branch there. It is understood the price was $300 a foot Danforth frontage. The lot is 29 x 110 feet. This is part of the land recently purchased by a syndicate from the Anglican Synod and which has been subdivided.

David Lavine, owner of the King George Hotel, Queen and Augusta streets, has sold the property to Goldie Sherman for $18,000. It is understood that there will be no interior change in management.

Mr. George F. Burton has purchased the residence at 51 Prince Arthur avenue from Mrs. J. Fleury for $20,000.

Mr. Joseph Price, owner of properties on Lee avenue, has given some 25 tenants one month's notice to vacate, as he intends to place the property on the market. The tenants claim that it is almost impossible to rent suitable properties at such short notice, and propose to hold a protest meeting.

James S. Gordon has purchased a store and dwelling at 57 Danforth avenue from Arnott & Needam for $15,000, and will open a first-class drug store on the premises in the near future. The deal was negotiated by Campbell & Campbell.

SCORES CHURCHES FOR AIDING NEEDY

Let the People Get Up Against It," Declares Rev. Ernest Thomas.

"True democracy should be the cooperation of government, industry and law," declared Rev. Ernest Thomas at the Open Forum yesterday. In the course of his address on "Can Democracy be Made Safe for Morality?" He stated that this triumvirate had been referred to as a sort of background for Bolshevism, but if Bolshevism was nothing more than that, then he was not afraid of it. He thought that parliamentary government was not a great aid to democracy.

"Poverty must go," he said vehemently. "It is not here to be relieved. It must be entirely done away with." He declared that the churches should stop relieving poverty and let the people get "up against it." That is the only way it could be abolished, and in this regard the church should function properly.

"A community has the right to demand an uninterrupted supply of the necessities of life," continued Rev. Thomas. "No community can do the best work when it is wondering where the next meal is coming from. It has been falsely stated that hunger and threatened starvation are a stimulation to greater effort, but I reiterate that fear of starvation never helped to accomplish anything."

"In this regard it has been stated by many that men who leave their work and go on strike because they are not getting a square deal, are committing an outrage, by hampering the progress of industry and commerce. Yet in spite of this, when a big flour-milling concern in the west closes down, no criticism is forthcoming. It is an actual fact that one western mill, recently, which supplies us with our staple article of food, shut down operations, simply because they could not dispose of the flour at an advantageous price. So far no cry has been raised as to this act being seditious."

He produced statistics showing that after a survey had been made of four of the big industries of Ontario, it was found that sixty per cent. of the women employed were receiving four dollars a week less than the minimum wage required to enable them to live properly. "We throw up our hands in horror at the socialization of women in Russia," he said, "but the far greater evil of the commercialization of women as it exists here, is let go without scarcely a comment. The whole question is summed up in the fact that poverty must go."

NO BOATS TO ISLAND FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Only Ship Available Would Not Satisfy Public, Says Manager.

The Toronto Ferry Company has decided not to supply a ferry service to and from the island for several weeks. It was announced on Saturday. Manager Solman of the Ferry Company said two of his boats were in drydock in the Don river and could not be floated at present.

"I have only one boat at the island, and if I put it into commission it would not meet the requirements, and no one would be satisfied," declared Mr. Solman.
