AMONG the most unhappy moments of a boy's lifetime are those in which he is like a girl—with a switch down his back.

A PART of the development which every man needs to enter into is that relation of love and trust and obedience which lifts the whole disposition to an altitude that makes it wise in spiritual and practical things.

"She did wrong to look back, didn't she, Bessie?" "Yes, mamma." "And what do you think Lot thought when he saw his poor wife turned into a pillar of salt?" "I don't know, mamma; I s'pect he wondered where he could get a fresh one."
