Guards Accompanying King Edward Arrest Suspicious Acting Man.

Caprice, the society comedy drama which scored such a pronounced success when produced last Friday evening by Theodore H. Bird and leading home talent in aid of the School for the Deaf, Lancaster. On that occasion the unanimous verdict was that Caprice was the best amateur entertainment of its kind ever seen in St. John.

Tonight's production will be identical with Friday's—the same cast, same choruses and the same entertaining specialities. The proceeds will be devoted to the playgrounds fund. There has been a large advance sale of seats for this evening's performance, but good ones are still to be had. Intending patrons should be at the box office early today to secure the best.

HOLYHEAD, July 9—Plain clothes of ficers who are accompanying King Edward and Queen Alexandra, on their tour of Wales, took a suspicious acting indivation to custody this afternoon. The man had hidden in the bushes alongside the approach to the residence of Sir Richard Bulkeley, just before the arrival of the King and Queen. As soon as he was discovered he made frantic efforts to escape, but was captured after a lively chase and lodged in jail. The police had difficulty in protecting the prisoner from the vengeance of an excited crowd of people. The identity of the man has not been divulged.
