MADE CANADA PAY $332,000 MORE

Montreal, Nov. 12.—Purchase by Canada in the early days of the war of two submarines from the Seattle Construction & Drydock Company for $1,150,000 was further investigated by the Davidson War Contracts Commission in Montreal. The Electric Boat Company, a witness. The Electric Boat Company of the United States was originally commissioned by the Chilean government to build the boats, and sublet the contract to the Seattle concern, the latter, through its manager, J. Patterson, handing over the sub-contract when the Chilean government, it is alleged, fell behind in payments it contracted to make. The Chilean government contracted to pay $818,000 for the ships. Mr. Taylor swore that the Electric Boat Company's western agent, T. S. Bayley, notified its vice-president, E. B. Frost, that Canada was willing to buy the subs, and advised that $620,000 each could be charged. This figure was ultimately secured from the Seattle Company, whose manager, Mr. Patterson, had sold them to Canada for $1,150,000. The Electric Boat Company received in cash from the Seattle concern $978,717.38. The remainder of the money represented a debt of $181,282.64 owed by the Electric Boat Company to the Seattle concern and $40,000 commission retained by Mr. Patterson.

Examined by John Thompson, K.C., commission counsel, Mr. Taylor said that Patterson's commission amounted to about three and a half per cent. This was not excessive, the usual price being four per cent. He knew of no commission being paid to anybody in Canada in relation to the sale. The debt owed by the Electric Boat Company to the Seattle Company was due for labor and material, and was incurred prior to the sale of the subs to Canada. It was not a connected account.

Replying to questions of Mr. Thompson touching on any options that might have been given on the ships, Mr. Taylor said his firm had no dealings with any man named Newman. Prior to the sale somebody telephoned him from Montreal about them and called on him the next day. No deal was arranged, as the ships had been sold in the meantime. A suit was pending in the United States over the boats. It was brought by former Congressman Jefferson Levy, who contended that the boats were sold to Canada while he had an option on them. He (witness) understood that Levy claimed he had a purchaser for them. The purchaser appeared to be one Gallagher, who was Levy's secretary. Mr. Taylor said that his company would have lost money had Chile carried out its contract. The price paid by Canada was a little more and a little less than similar ships had been sold for.

Sir Charles Davidson read a cablegram received from Lieut. Col. Smith, now in England, who was charged before the commission, when it was sitting in Winnipeg with receiving $115 who acting remount officer. Col. Smith was notified of the charges which were made by W. J. Hinman, and replied in his cable as follows:

"Absolute rot. Ask Lemon, Halfpenny, Price and Leslie for evidence." The commission instructed that affidavits be secured from the men mentioned in the cable. When secured they will be forwarded to Col. Smith.

The commission adjourned, the date for resumption being left in abeyance until it could be learned when Rear Admiral Kingsmill could be present.

LETTER FROM SERGEANT GRAHAM OF THE 26TH

The Terrible 13th of October—More About the Cruelty of Germans

Sergeant W. B. Graham of St. Stephen writing to his wife, said in regard to the fight the 26th Battalion took part in:

"For my part, I was never in such a terrible position in my life, as I was last Wednesday afternoon, October 13. I had an order from Col. McAvity to take high explosive bombs to A. Company, where the fight was hottest. We were caught between our own army fire and the Germans. The German shells were exploding all around with rifle fire, machine guns, and everything a human being can invent. I was never so relieved in my life as when we landed our load at the front line, and I thank God that I am able to write these few lines to you."

"I saw a great many brave acts done by our men of the 26th Battalion and I think New Brunswick should be proud of the battalion. No one can call us 'mere picture soldiers' any longer. For all the St. John people gave us a bad name last winter, (all had to suffer for a few) we are thought very highly of over here, and are called the best fighting battalion in the 2nd C. E. F."

"Those men in St. Stephen, who won't enlist, we would not let them scrape the mud off our uniforms when we come out of the trenches, and I am very sure we would not let them clean our rifles."

"Chester McCracken's relatives should be proud of him. He is a bomb thrower, and was in the very thickest of the fight, and never got a scratch, also a Maxwell from North street, Canada. Out of thirty-three bombers only thirteen answered roll call. Chester McCracken is one of the smallest men in the battalion and the first thing he did after the fight was to hunt me up, to see if I was all right."

"There is nothing too hard to say about the German soldiers. Some people will ask the question 'Have we seen any German soldiers?' Well, yes we have. Some were dressed in blue, some in black and others had civilian clothes on. We could see them when they ran from the first line trenches to the second. There are hundreds of them who will fight no more."

"I would give most anything to step to my own home, but on the other hand I am willing to give my life to conquer the most cursed race of people. There are not words in the English language strong enough for me to express myself. Here is an example of their treachery. Last week, when the English troops drove the Germans out of their trenches, they found French women in the trenches. (Dead people tell no tales). If that is what you call German culture, then God I have got any. Cold steel is too good for the Germans."

"Tell Tom Doyle that I will be very much pleased to get his tobacco. I will try to write him a letter, but as we are only allowed to write two letters a week, it is hard to do any extra writing."

"I am sending you Col. McAvity's order for you to keep for me, so that when come back I will have a memento of the first real excitement of my life."

SERGEANT W. B. GRAHAM, 26th Battalion.
