FRENCH CABINET BACKS POINCARE

Approves Attitude Towards British Reply to Germany—Belgium Agrees.

Paris, July 24.—The French cabinet today unanimously approved Premier Poincare's attitude toward the British reply to Germany's reparations note, which the premier set forth to his colleagues this morning for the first time. This was the only definite information that was obtainable after the meeting of the cabinet ministers. Poincare and Belgium it appeared, already have practically agreed as to their position and the fact that the cabinet meeting, which was to have been held Thursday, was advanced two days to hear M. Poincare's report. The situation was taken in political circles as indicating that the premier's reply was ready and that it was negative as to some of the important points in the British proposals.

ROBSENATOR BEAUBIEN IN FRENCH CAR

Thieves Take One Million Francs in Credit Notes, Also Gold

HIDDEN IN VALISE

Two Bags Disappear While Owner is in the Dining Car.

(Canadian Press Cable) Paris, July 24.—The Lille Echo du Nord, publishes an account of a robbery of which Senator Beaubien of Montreal, who is accompanying the Canadian trade exhibition train now touring France, was the victim. The theft which occurred at Douay, a station of a particularly audacious nature. Senator Beaubien left Lille to go to Arras and took a seat in an express which calls at Douay. He was seated in the last compartment of a first class coach and he had placed two leather valises in a rack. One contained linen and other personal effects and the other $125 in gold and letters of credit to the amount of one million francs as well as various toilet articles. Beaubien and Calais he left the compartment to go to the restaurant car and when he returned a little before the train reached Douay he noticed that his valises had disappeared. Arriving at Arras he reported to the commissaire of the local police. The commissaire of the compartment declared that another passenger had got out at Douay carrying three valises. The police are now endeavoring to trace the thief or thieves.

MORE MINERS VOTE TO RESUME WORK

Action by Others Expected Soon—U. M. W. Headquarters Taken Over.

North Sydney, N. S., July 24.—Numbers seven local U. M. W. at Sydney Mines voted this morning to return to work in the Scotia collieries and to recognize the authority of President John Lewis. Provincial president of the district Silby Barrett was notified of the union's decision. Operations will probably be recommenced in a couple of days. The other locals of Sydney Mines and Florence have not yet taken individual action in connection with the recognition of President Barrett's order for a local vote. It is expected that Princess local will vote this afternoon. The situation generally is quiet. Take Over Here. Glace Bay, N. S., July 24.—Acting on behalf of the local U. M. W. Barrett, the law firm of McCarthy and Currie this morning formally took possession of the U. M. W. district headquarters Union street. Some slight trouble developed yesterday in what is known as the Toronto mine, operated by the Bras D'Or Coal Company in North Cape Breton yesterday. Farmers and Grain Dealers in Clash

Yorkton, Sask., July 24.—(Canadian Press) Accusations of alleged crooked dealings connected with statements of shortightedness of the farmer selling his grain, featured the session of the Royal Grain Inquiry Commission here yesterday.

John Taylor, farmer, accused the Peaker Grain Company, Yorkton, of deceiving him regarding the grade of his wheat. James Peaker, manager of the company, said Mr. Taylor had sold the wheat to the company as No. 3. The company later on sold it at Fort William as No. 2.

HUGE STILL IS SEIZED IN CARLETONCO

Sheriff and Inspectors Swoop Down on Plant in the Woods.

TRACED BY AROMA

Two Hundred and Fifty Gallons of Booze are Dumped Out

(Special To The Times) Woodstock, July 24.—Sheriff F. A. H. Foster, Deputy Sheriff Moore and Prohibition Inspector Nevers, swooped down on a moonshine outfit last evening near Rockland. The methods for manufacturing were up to date and was adapted to operate in different localities. A three-burner oil stove furnished the power and was surmounted by a bullet-shaped boiler with a capacity of ten or 12 gallons. A long coil of lead pipe, dippers, jugs, and other paraphernalia were parts of the plant brought to town the whole lot making a truckload. Traced by Aroma. The case of operations was in the dense woods and while the "proprietors" were cautious in not having any smoke, they did not figure on the fact that the whole outfit is now in the hands of the inspectors. Five cases of 50 gallons capacity each were found to contain moonshine which would be ready to distribute on Saturday. This large quantity would indicate a considerable volume of business. The trucks were overturned and dumped. The police are now in the Sheriff's Office except one bag of mahogany which is in an out-house. Maitre of Leighton, who is an official of the Inland Revenue Department and is out of town has been sent for and will lay information which will result in arrests being made in connection with the affair.

It was his intention to travel through a country never before traversed by white men. Weatherbe is a native of Halifax, fifty years of age, a son of the late Sir Robert Weatherbe, formerly Chief Justice of Nova Scotia and has held posts in every part of the globe.

Hero of Bomb Episode In French House Dead

Perpignan, France, July 24.—Charles Alexander Dupuy, former Premier, is dead. He was president of the Chamber of Deputies when the Anarchist Valliant threw a bomb at him, and his courageous bearing and historic words, "gentleman, are still continuing," gained him great fame.

M. Dupuy was born in 1851. He was Premier in 1894, and was with President Carnot when the latter was stabbed to death at Lyons. He became a candidate for the presidency but was defeated. His cabinet remained in office until it was dissolved. He was elected Senator in 1894. His ministry was still in power when the court of cassation decided that it was under it that Captain Dreyfus was arrested and on Wednesday, M. Dupuy resigned. Later he was elected Senator.

Mad Empress Welcomes Death

THE MAD EMPRESS CARLOTTA

Brussels, July 24.—Empress Carlotta, "the mad empress," has prayed for death for many years. Two years ago, stricken with influenza, she almost recovered her wish. Wife of former Emperor Maximilian of Mexico, she has for nearly half a century been the most pathetic figure in European royalty. She became bereft of her reason in 1867, when her husband was executed by Mexican rebels. It is her close identity with North American life, even so long ago, that makes her an unusually interesting figure in Canada. News is now received that the Empress is upon her death bed and doctors say that her prayers for death will soon be answered.

Asylum Walls Damaged By 'Quake; 519 Patients Removed

San Bernardino, Calif., July 24.—The removal of 519 patients from the State Hospital for the Insane at Patton, near here, was ordered yesterday when it was discovered that damage to walls of the hospital building by the earthquake Sunday night had rendered the structure unsafe for occupation. Edwin Wayne, acting superintendent, said he expected many of the patients ordered moved would be obliged to sleep in the open. The patients were taken to the institution and there is no room in the other wards for those taken out. A hole, ten feet square, was torn in the north wall of the building by the shock. Two wings were affected, one occupied by men patients, the other by women.

Regina, Sask., July 24.—Following a meeting of the Moderation League last night it was decided to circulate a petition throughout the province and present it to the Government by Scot 15. The petition asks that immediate provision be made whereby the people of this province may express their desire in regard to a liquor policy by their vote.

MESSENGRERS ARE ROBBED IN TORONTO

Three Held Up in Daylight Near King and Yonge Streets.

FIRE 12 BULLETS

The Bandits Escape Toward Hamilton in a High-Powered Car

(Canadian Press) Toronto, July 24.—One man is dead and two others are suffering from serious bullet wounds and may die following a holdup of three bank messengers in the vicinity of King and Yonge streets, Toronto's business centre, at about nine thirty this morning. The messengers employed by the Cawthra Bank and the Union Bank, were on their way to the clearing house when they were held up by six bandits, in a high-powered car. Two of the bandits riding on the running board of the car, pointed their revolvers at the messengers and held them up while the others snatched the pouches containing thousands of dollars from the bank employes. The messengers resisted and the bandits immediately fired upon them, and jumped into the car and made their escape. Twelve bullets were fired at the messengers and the majority of them found objectives. One arrest is said to have been made and according to the police the other bandits escaped in the direction of Hamilton.

IS NOT FEASIBLE

Bond Issue For Branch Line Building Not Likely to Be Approved

Winnipeg, July 24.—While the matter of issuing bonds in order to raise money for making a start with the branch line construction programme of the C. N. R. will be one of the chief subjects for discussion at the conference today between Sir Henry Thornton, president, and the other fourteen members of the board, it was authoritatively stated last night that there is not much chance of the proposal being favorably considered. Such a scheme is not feasible, so far as financing any work this year is concerned, and further it could not be legally undertaken in view of provisions in existing legislation, it was stated.

14 Charged Under The Anti-Betting Law

Ottawa, July 24.—The rigid enforcement of the new "Ontario betting information bill" began here yesterday when local police made a tour of the news-stands and as a result fourteen news vendors will face charges of keeping for sale papers banned under the new act.

The New York Times is one of the papers to carry the prohibited information and at several places copies were taken and will be used as evidence. G. P. Jeans, managing editor of the Daily Racing Form, published in New York, is in Ottawa and has engaged counsel to look after his interests.

Turk Treaty Will Not Affect Oil Concessions

London, July 24.—Replying in the House of Commons yesterday to a question of how far the position of the Turkish Petroleum Company concession is affected by the Turkish peace treaty in view of the more recent Chester concession, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs McNeill said the treaty contained no special provisions dealing with the Turkish company's concessions and that its claims were not affected by the treaty.

The present situation, Mr. McNeill added, was that the British Government regarded all obligations undertaken by the Turkish Petroleum Company's concessions, as binding on the Turkish Government in any territory remaining to Turkey under the peace treaty.
