TIGERS TAKE ONE FROM THE INDIANS

Pipp and Meusel Both Out of Game With Injured Ankles.

New York, Sept. 28.—The second rate Indians went down to defeat yesterday before the third rate Tigers in Detroit by the score of 5 to 4. The Tigers made their big play in the fifth inning when they wrote up four tallies in a row, taking the lead by one run. In the next inning each team took one for the last score of the game.

The Yanks trimmed the Red Sox in Boston 8 to 3. The American League champions started off with a bang in the first frame, taking three runs, hooked three more in the third, and the final pair in the eighth inning. The Red Sox made one brave stand in the sixth, when they collected three all in a row, but could not seem to scratch the pan again.

In the National League the Pirates lost to the Cubs, 5 to 2. O'Farrell and Miller rounded the circuit in an sprint for the Cubs, while Grimm pounded a homer for the Pirates.

The Braves defeated the Phillies, 7 to 2 in Philadelphia, counting five runs in the fifth inning and following with one in each of the next two. The hit score was almost even, 12 to 11, with the winners leading.

Wally Pipp of the Yankees, sprained his ankle yesterday getting off the train, and Lou Gehrig, former football and baseball star at Columbia University, filled in, and started both at the bat and first base. Meusel also hurt his ankle sliding to the plate yesterday, and had to retire.

ed and teams given to Nov. 1st to complete their line-ups. The proposed Inter-Association League was approved and H. B. Roberts, chairman of the sports committee appointed to represent the association at the meeting on Oct. 4, when this matter will be the subject of conference between representatives of various interested associations.
