Giants Take Another.

By defeating the Yankees yesterday by a score of 2 to 1 the Giants took the lead in the series to decide the baseball championship of the world. They have won four games and the Yankees three. A record crowd was on hand to witness the game which was considered the most crucial of the series. Carl Mays pitched masterly ball for the Yankees and should have won, but Ward who until yesterday played sensationally around the key-hole sack, made one glaring error, which resulted in the winning tally. He not credited with an error it gave the Giants a life, which eventually paved the way for the first run. Phil Douglas caught the pitching responsibilities for the Giants and also was in good form. Although allowing eight hits he kept them well scattered and only one run resulted. The official attendance yesterday was 96,503 and the receipts $118,974. The grand receipts to date aggregate $804,781 a new record. The box score and summary follows:
