in 1878 with his wife and family. His first wife was Miss Compton, who died stable Robert Crawford on Saturday night on the charge of driving at an excessive rate of speed on the Hampton road.

which is probably the largest fine that has been imposed for speeding in the vicinity of the city during this season.
Constable Crawford brought three other car drivers before Mr. Anderson and he imposed a fine of $10 on each of them for speeding. A fine of $10 was imposed

POLICE COURT

The case of Joseph Elliott, charged with passing worthless checks was continued in the police court this morning.
J. Benson Mahoney told of the accused being in his store about the middle of May and asking him to cash a check for $4. He said the accused told him if the check was not good he would be responsible. The check was returned from the bank with a memo that there were no funds. Cross examined by E.
C. Weyman, counsel for the defense, the witness said he was suspicious of the accused when he first entered the store but had a certain amount of confidence in him as he had been in and out of the store on other occasions. He said that he did not know the maker of the check, E. H. Hoyt, but he thought the defendant would be good for $4. Another witness had been ordered by the prosecution to appear but failed to show up so the case was postponed until Wednesday afternoon. Sergeant Detective Power conducted the prosecution.

The case of Harry Wetmore, charged with supplying liquor illegally, was also continued. L. Christie was recalled and reiterated his former evidence to the effect that he had not obtained the liquor from the defendant's shop in Mill street.
R. S. Ritchie, counsel for the defence moved for a dismissal on the ground that there was no evidence of guilt. The magistrate informed the prosecution that they would have to bring further evidence so the case was postponed until Wednesday morning. W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution.
The case against George Stanton, charged with having liquor in the cellar under his beer shop, near the Marsa Bridge, was to have been continued this morning but the defendant failed to appear and a deposit of $200 was forfeited.
Henry Brittaney was before the court late yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing a pair of rubber boots, valued at $8.50, the property of D. Bassen, from the doorway of the complainant's store in Charlotte street on the evening of June 8. No evidence was taken and the accused was remanded.
One man charged with drunkenness was fined $5 or two months in jail.

COMPANY IS NOT WILLING TO MAKE ANY AGREEMENT

Manager's Statement Before Arbitration Board.

Union Men Agree to All Sections of Proposed Agreement Except Those Relating to the One Man Car, Wages, Loyalty and Control of Employees—Effort to Settle Outside Board.

A board of arbitration authorized by the minister of labor to take up the matter of dispute between the New Brunswick Power Co. and its employees opened its sittings in the rooms of the board of trade here this morning. Hon.
W. B. Chandler, of Moncton, presided, and the other members were Frank Hatheway of St. John, representing the men, and C. W. Burpee, of McAdam Junction, appointed to represent the company. Percy W. Thomson, the general manager appeared on behalf of the company and the local union of street railway employees was represented by Magnus Sinclair, an officer on the international executive board. Others present were Ira D. Parrie, president; Thomas Frost, vice president, and Percy Moore, secretary treasurer of the local union, and Fred A. Campbell.

Mr. Sinclair went over the proposed amended agreement between the two parties and pointed out the sections which were objected by the men. Mr.
Thomson said that the company was not willing to make any agreement. At 1 o'clock the meeting adjourned until 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Sinclair went over the 1920-21 agreement, noting the changes asked by the employees in the proposed new agreement. All the clauses were agreed to by the men, he said, except the following:—

Hours.—The employees asked for a continuation of the clause in the old agreement, while the company wanted some changes. The proposed agreement provided for payment for not less than three hours for call after nine p.m. The men objected to the words "after nine p.m."

Choice of Runs.—The men objected to a portion of this clause, which provided for giving the company "great latitude" in working out this article. The article provided for five days' notice before change of time-table was put into effect.
One-man Cars.—This clause provided that the company may operate all or any of its cars with one man if they so desired. This was objected to by the men.

Mr. Sinclair explained at this point that since the application for a board negotiations had been instituted between the parties through the mayor, and some concessions had been made on both sides.

Wages.—This clause was not satisfactory to the men, but a new proposition of wages submitted by the company through the mayor was an improvement on the original, but had not yet been put before the men. It would likely be presented, he said.

Duration of Contract.—The proposed amended agreement provided for its cancellation at one month's notice by either side. The union was of the opinion that it should stand for at least one year. Mr. Sinclair said that the element of suspense in this clause would affect the men as well as the employees.

Control of Company Over Employees.
—This clause was not considered necessary in the opinion of the men, as the company would be expected to have the privilege of hiring and dismissing.

Loyalty Clause.—This was also considered unnecessary by the men, and was taken up as an indication that they were not giving faithful service.

Percy W. Thomson.

Mr. Thomson said that none of the clauses in the proposed amended agreement was satisfactory to the company, which was not willing to make any agreement with the men.

Judge Chandler said that the employees had submitted the clauses which were satisfactory, and the company was not willing to make any agreement. It seems to me," he said, "that unless an agreement can be reached there is little for us to do."

He stated that the members of the board get in touch with both sides to see if some settlement could be reached. The board went into private session to discuss the situation, and later went into consultation with Messrs. Thomson, Sinclair and Parrie.

ducted by Archdeacon Crowfoot.

More of Those Popular
Whitney Go-Carts!
Glance in at our window as you go by and note the attractive solidness of these crack new Whitney Go-Carts. They are displayed there for your attention.
Just two colors—Ecru and Gray. Some of them have auto hoods and some are without.
Some with stationary back; others with the drop back and adjustable footrest—to make a full sized carriage for a larger youngster.
A pleasing feature is the new idea in brakes. A downward motion of the foot puts brake in use or releases it.
No longer necessary to spoil a good shine to release the brake.
Also the Whitney is a roomy affair, and the last word in travel comfort for the precious burden it is intended to carry.
