ATHLETIC.
Canadian Athletics Home.
Montreal, Sept. 8.—The majority of the athletes who represented Canada in the Olympic games arrived here last night, but without warning so that their only welcome was from officers and directors of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association. They expressed high praise of the treatment received from those in charge of the Olympiad.

Asked about charges of professionalism, Instructor Armstrong said that the charge had been laid against Moe Herscovitch by Spike Webb, instructor of the United States team, to Major Graves of the American army of occupation, one of the officials of the boxing tournament. Webb contends that Herscovitch had boxed with and against professionals in the army tournaments during the war, and had no right to compete at the Olympiad. Major Graves asked Webb to furnish proof, and as he was unable to do so, the charges were dropped.

THE RING
South American Champion
Buenos Aires, Sept. 8.—Luis A. Firpo, South American heavyweight boxing champion, is soon to visit the United States, where he will seek the advantage to be derived from good and expert management. Firpo weighs 215 pounds. His title was gained by defeating boxers in Chile and other South American countries. In a match in Buenos Aires, in June he knocked out Antonio Jirsa.

Deauville, France, Sept. 8.—Bombardier Wells, English heavyweight fighter, last night defeated Paul Journe, a French heavyweight, in the sixteenth round of a contest held here.
Journe, who once was sparring partner for Georges Carpentier, has been knocked out twice this year—in March in London by Wells in the thirteenth round, and in May in the same city by Frank Moran, Pittsburg, in two rounds.

"BABE" RUTH SUES TO ENJOIN FILMS

Asks Permanent Injunction and $1,000,000 for Using Pictures Without His Consent.

(New York Times.)
George Herman Ruth, better known as "Babe," appeared before Supreme Court Justice Guy yesterday with his attorney, ex-Judge Jeremiah Mahoney, to ask for the continuance of a temporary injunction obtained late Monday night restraining the exhibition of films advertised to be shown in film theatres throughout the city under the name of "Babe Ruth in Over the Fence." Ruth is also suing for $1,000,000, on the ground that the use of such films without his consent for trade purposes constitutes a violation of the Civil Rights law.

The case promises to be a novel one, because of the contention of the defendants that "Babe" Ruth, in consequence of becoming the world's greatest home-run hitter, is now a public character and films showing him in action as much a matter of news as those showing the President of the United States or other public dignitaries and that for that reason he cannot appeal to the Civil Rights law.

The defendants named are the Educational Films, the B. F. Keith New Theatres Company, the B. S. Moss Theatrical Enterprises, the C. B. C. Sales Company, Jack Cohan and the F. F. Proctor Theatrical Enterprises. The complaint alleges that the film about to be shown consists of a series of pictures taken at ball games in which the plaintiff participated and pieced together to make a continuous film. "Babe" describes himself as "the greatest home-run batter known to the baseball profession" and contends that any profit accruing from the use of his pictures in films should come to him, and not to film producers who are seeking to profit by his prowess. He also contends that the pictures as shown do not constitute news.

Another film, in which Ruth was posing when he was bitten by a poisonous snake, causing him to be out of the woodtick, causing him to be out of the game for a few days, has not been finished. A large sum has been guaranteed for appearing in this film.

After hearing argument by Judge Mahoney for Ruth and by ex-Judge Edward E. McCall for the defendants, Justice Guy modified the injunction to permit the exhibition of the pictures yesterday, and he is expected to decide the case today.

CARPENTIER GIVEN BIG SEND-OFF
Champion on His Way to America to Meet Levinsky—After That Dempsey.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Georges Carpentier, European heavyweight boxing champion, on leaving for the United States, declared:—"After a period of vigorous training in Normandy, I am in the fittest condition of my life, and confident that I will beat Levinsky. After that I will be in readiness for a contest for the world's title. If Dempsey is willing."

The champion was accompanied by eight trunks, which shelter a brand new wardrobe. It includes sixteen suits of wardrobe. At the latest autumn tints, five dozen of the "last word" neckties, the latest Rue de La Paix striped silk shirts and a rainbow dressing gown from the same maker who supplies Gabriel d'Annunzio.

The approach to the railway station in Paris at which he took the boat train was packed with a cheering crowd. The special police detail had its hands full protecting the champion when he arrived in a closed limousine. He was accompanied by his wife, who was in tears. It is their first parting. Mrs. Carpentier shouted as the train rolled out: "Good luck, Georges. Give my love to America."

Carpentier is traveling on S. S. Lorraine.

DRURY COVE SPORTS

Labor Day Events Closing the Season of 1920 Greatly Enjoyed.

The close of the season was marked at Drury Cove on Labor Day when the Drury Cove Athletic Association held an open field day with ideal weather. All events were enthusiastically contested. The day opened with a tennis tournament between the married and single men. The married men won, 50 points to 76. During the tournament children's races were run off with a large number participating for the prizes.

The afternoon was devoted to water sports of all kinds but some could not be run off on account of lack of time. No decision was given in the surf riding on account of the motorboats used not being speedy enough.

In the evening a tennis tournament of mixed doubles was played, and a nail driving contest was participated in by everyone in the vicinity. The winners were Miss J. Knight for the ladies, Mr. Clarke for the men.

At nine o'clock a masquerade ball was held at the home of W. R. Stewart, the masked company turning out in force. Some of the costumes were: Mrs. W. R. Evans, Nursing Sister; Miss J. Knight, Sporting Gentleman with Charlie Chaplin mustache; Mr. Drummie as a Society Lady; H. Brennan as Old Mother Hubbard; Mrs. T. H. Sandall as The Sailor in White; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Colwell as Ye Olde Time Couple; L. H. Sandall as a Country Girl; G. Pedersen as The English Knight. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the club and the happy but tired gathering disbanded in the early hours of the morning.

Some of the sport results are as follows:

Men's Tennis Tournament:
Married vs. Single
L. H. Sandall and F. Girvin vs. B. Ryan and J. Arrowsmith—2-6, 6-2, 6-3.
