RING.

Bel Prevents Knockout.

Meriden, Conn., Jan. 16. — Louis (Kid) Kahlan of Meriden won the referee's decision over Mickey Travers of New Haven here last night. Travers escaped a knockout when the final bell rang. The sixth meeting between the two fighters, created state-wide interest. Both fighters weighed 130 pounds at three p. m. Kahlan won every round except the third, which was even.

Swift Action in This One.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15. — Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., welterweight champion, knocked out Steve Letso of Hazleton, Pa., in the third round of a scheduled eight-round bout here last night. Walker carried the fighting to Letso throughout the short but terrific bout. A series of heavy body punches and a hard left to the jaw finished the Hazleton fighter.

Two Quebec Knock-outs.

Quebec, Jan. 16.—Oscar Deschamps, Montreal lightweight, was awarded the decision over Kid Dube of Lewiston, Maine, here last night. In semi-finals of the tournament, Deschamps knocked out Kid Mitchell of Quebec, in the sixth round. Kid McNaughton of Quebec, flyweight, knocked out K. O. Burke of Toronto, in first round.

Pal Moore By a Shade.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Pal Moore of Memphis, Tenn., last night gained a shade newspaper decision over Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, Ind., after ten fast rounds of boxing at East Chicago. The men weighed in at 114-12 pounds each. By virtue of his victory Moore was said to have first called on a bout with Pancho Villa in Milwaukee, for the American flyweight championship.

Boxing Clearing House.

New York, Jan. 16.—Creation of a national boxing registration bureau to act as a clearing house for information on professional pugilists and adoption of a standardized universal code of boxing regulations were favored yesterday by delegates attending the third annual convention of the National Boxing Association which represents boxing commissions in twenty-one states and five other countries including Canada, where the sport is legalized.

Greb's Victory.

Pittsburg, Jan. 16.—Harry Greb of Pittsburg, American light heavyweight champion, forced the fighting all the way in a ten round bout here last night easily gaining a newspaper decision over Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia.

Closer to Lynch.

Baltimore, Jan. 16.—King Williams, of this city, former world's bantamweight champion, advanced a notch closer to his proposed match with Joe

"The Loves of Pharaoh"

A Massive Photo-Epic That Lifts Your Body and Mind Into a Period 3000 Years Back in World History

THIS IS A VERY DIFFERENT KIND OF MOTION PICTURE. It is something that not only entertains and thrills but it leaves a deep and lasting impression upon the mind of young and old instructive of the pre-Christian times in the Bible-land of Egypt when the people of God were harassed by the unbelievers. It is singularly interesting also because it links itself with surprising truth and detail into the recent discoveries in Pharaoh tombs in the Nile Valley—discoveries of which the press daily reports.
