

accepted by the congregation as it appeared on the printed statements then in their hands.

It was moved by Mr. G. E. Dalby, seconded by Mr. C. R. Peterkin, that the following gentlemen be the trustees for 1894: Messrs. Jas. Turnbull, B.A., Wm. Melville, J. Joss.

Messrs. Gardiner and Smith were re-elected auditors for the coming year, and were tendered the congregation's thanks for their services.

It was moved by Mr. Gardiner, seconded by Mr. Wm. Clark, "That the following be a committee to compile the annual report, and that the minutes of this meeting be inserted therein: Rev Alex. Gilray, C. R. Peterkin, and James Brown." Carried.

Mr. Turnbull in the course of some remarks made the following suggestion: That the Board should keep the ushers for a longer time in the vestibule than at present, as he contended that by appointing new ones every two months they had only become acquainted with their work when they retired. He also suggested that the names of the choir, with the different parts taken by each, be printed in the year book, and in conjunction with this that the thanks of the congregation be tendered the choir for their services, and he moved to this effect, seconded by Mr. Jas. Brown. Carried.

The Rev. Mr. Hume moved, seconded by Mr. Wm. Elder, that the thanks of the congregation be tendered our pastor for the deep interest he had taken in everything connected with the church during the past year. This motion was unanimously carried, and very feelingly replied to by Mr. Gilray.

The following motion was moved by Mr. C. R. Peterkin, seconded by Mr. Gardiner: "That in the event of its being found necessary, in re-arranging the floating debt, to increase the mortgage, that the pastor and representative elder be a deputation to the Presbytery to obtain the necessary authority, and the
