Charles K. Giasson, aged 62 years, duly sworn, declares and says:-

I am an uncle of William Meloche, one of the parties in this case, and I have already given evidence in this case. During the haying time of 1893 when I was at work, Francois Beaudette came to me and told me that W. Meloche had presented his cutting hay, that he had worked hard there, that he had bought it from him: as far as I can remember, he told me that he had paid him 75 cents, and that he was going to take away the hay that he had cut himself. Two days afterwards he came to me and asked who had removed the hay. I told him that it was Meloche, and said that he ought to know that it did not belong to him. He told me that he would sue him.
