SUCCESSFUL SMOKER.

A very successful smoker was held in the N. C. O.'s mess last evening, it being held especially for the benefit of members of the rank and file of the 62nd and for the Beaser Corps, who assisted the N. C. O.'s in their military entertainment in the Opera House early in the summer.

Chairman Campbell had an excellent programme arranged. Songs from Henry Doody, Sgt. John Nuttall, Sgt. McKean, Drummer Nuttall; recitations by Sgt. Gallagher, and banjo solo by Sgt. Leavitt; buck and wing dancing by Messrs. Warren, O'Hara and Murphy, and a quartette composed of Messrs. Doody, Jones, Sgt. McKean and Sgt. Campbell. Later in the evening the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association paid an informal visit, and a jolly good time was spent. Mr. McElroy of that association added much to the success of the entertainment. At a wee sma' hour all shook hands, singing They Are Jolly Good Fellows.

KILL THE WHOLE BILL.

The Telegraph finds hope in the remark of the liberal leader in the senate that the Quebec-Moncton section of the G. T. P. will be abandoned if found impracticable, and seems to think that with these alterations the bill will be acceptable.

By no amendment, except one destroying the bill can the Grand Trunk Pacific measure be made worthy of public endorsement. The Quebec-Moncton branch is, at present considered, a great weakness, but by no means the greatest. The objections to this branch are based on its route, on the fact that it puts into the hands of a hostile company the power of killing the I. C. R., and on the idiotic provision which made it end at Moncton instead of at a seaport. Should the road be constructed as now planned, the Grand Trunk, to reach tide water, would have to spend millions on their own account, and since the government does not make this compulsory, and they have already a line to Portland, there is no doubt what their course will be.

But if the extension from Quebec through New Brunswick is abandoned entirely, the maritime provinces will be in a worse fix than ever. The Grand Trunk has branches from Quebec and Montreal to Portland, by which the sea is a couple of hundred miles nearer than by the long haul to St. John around by the I. C. R. They are bound by no provision in the contract to use the I. C. R., and certainly will not do so to the injury of their own line unless they are. If the G. T. P. is allowed to end at Quebec, it means that probably not one pound of the vaunted all-Canadian railway's freight will find export in the winter through Canadian ports.

The only solution to the difficulty is that offered by R. L. Borden:—The building and operation by the government of a line following the best route from Quebec to the sea through the maritime provinces, and connecting at Quebec with a government line reaching to granary of the west. The branch so built and managed for the people, who also own the I. C. R., would not only be a supplementary to that road and not as a rival.

The present transcontinental railway scheme is wrong in conception and in almost every detail. By no possible amendment can it be made to fulfil the purpose for which it is ostensibly intended.

NO DISCOURTESY.

The Telegraph complains that the common council committed a grave discourtesy toward Mr. Blair and Col. Tucker when they requested Mr. Fowler to look after the interests of St. John with reference to the Allan line matter. The council were simply doing what they thought best for the city. Mr. Blair has obliterated himself, temporarily at least, and is apparently taking no part in the affairs of the house. It is hinted that he deems a non-partisan attitude the most suitable for a government official-elect. So it was not thought advisable to prejudice his chances by provoking him toward taking some action that might displease the government. And Col. Tucker nobody ever considered seriously, anyway. His work as a representative of St. John ceased when the election bills were paid. The matter had to be attended to at once and Mr. Fowler, who, of all the New Brunswick representatives, has shown himself most concerned in the welfare of his province and its chief city, was naturally chosen. His prompt action has justified the choice.

Mr. Blair still blames Senator Cox for all his troubles.

What will the Telegraph have to say about "the strong man of New Brunswick" if, after his one great stand for the good of his province and his country, should passively submit to the carrying out of the measure he once utterly condemned and should take a high-salaried office as his price of his passivity.

The Globe figures out that 110 winter port ships will sail from this port during the coming season. Apparently the Canadian Pacific is to find cargoes for them all. If that is so could not the Intercolonial be asked to supply the other nine that are under contract to come here?—Sun.

TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Lived a woman wonderful,
(May the Lord amend her)
Neither simple, kind, nor true,
But her pagan beauty drew
Christian gentlemen a few,
Hotly to attend her.

Christian gentlemen a few,
From Berwick unto Dover
For she was South Africa,
And she was South Africa,
She was our South Africa,
Africa all over.

They esteemed her favor more
Than a throne's foundation
For the glory of her face
Made farewell to bread and race—
Yes, and made their burial-place
Altar of a nation.

Wherefore, being bought by blood
And by blood restored
To the arms that nearly lost,
She became of all she cost,
Stands a very woman, most
Perfect and adored.

INDICTMENT DISMISSED.

HALIFAX, Oct. 14.—Some months ago the brokers of Halifax were arrested on an indictment by the grand jury that they were conducting gambling houses and that their business generally was illegal. Today the indictments were quashed. The chief justice after reading the indictment said that the crown officers might just as well have sent the accused a copy of the criminal code and marked the section as to have put in his hands this indictment, that there was no more particularly in the indictment than there was in the criminal code, and he conceived that when a man is charged with an offence the indictment should describe the offence charged with such particularity as would enable the accused to know exactly what he has to meet. This case, he said, the indictments were preferred otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of the code, and were therefore null and void. The several brokers were then called on and motion of their counsel were discharged.
