Governor Cobb, Standing Almost Exclusively on Prohibition Platform, Elected by Plurality of Less than 8,000--Democratic Candidate Put Up Great Fight.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—Governor Wm. T. Cobb, of Rockland, standing on a platform devoted almost exclusively to a continuance of the prohibition laws of the state, was re-elected today by a plurality of less than 8,000, with but few exceptions the smallest margin of votes ever given a Republican governor in the state of Maine.

More interesting from a national point of view was the re-election of Governor Cobb, standing on a platform devoted almost exclusively to a continuance of the prohibition laws of the state, was re-elected today by a plurality of less than 8,000, with but few exceptions the smallest margin of votes ever given a Republican governor in the state of Maine.

FIRST EVIDENCE IN COLLINS CASE

Preliminary Examination Begun at Hopewell Cape Prisoner Detained by J. C. Sherren of Moncton—Is in Good Spirits and Does Not Seem Excited

(Special to the Sun.) HOPWELL CAPE, Sept. 10.—The preliminary examination of Thomas P. Collins, accused of the murder of Mary Ann McAulley, opened here at eleven o'clock this forenoon before Stipendiary Magistrate Daniel W. Stuart.

The prisoner was brought from the jail to the office of the clerk of the peace, M. B. Dixon, who appeared for the crown, and remained till one o'clock until the arrival of Premier Tweedie, who will conduct the examination.

The prisoner is defended by James C. Sherren of Moncton. The presence of counsel appeared to depress the prisoner with confidence, his lawyer and demeanor as he threaded his way through the crowd showing far more unconcern than when he first faced the magistrate a week ago.

There was scarcely a trace of embarrassment in his countenance, and he seemed perfectly self-possessed, smiling at the whispered remarks of his counsel in a matter which he had no information against the prisoner was read.

At half-past three Premier Tweedie arrived and the proceedings were resumed in the court house, which was filled with a large crowd, who manifested the greatest interest.

The prisoner was not placed in the dock but remained seated beside his counsel. The first witness called was Mrs. Ruth Leaman, who testified as follows:

PROVINCIAL PREMIERS WILL MEET OCTOBER 8

Invitation Only Mentions Re-arrangement of the Provincial Subsidies as Matter for Discussion—Number of Other Matters Will Undoubtedly be Taken Up.

(Special to the Sun.) OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 10.—The invitation to the provincial premiers to meet the federal authorities at Ottawa, on October 8 only mentions the re-arrangement of the provincial subsidies as a matter for discussion.

It is understood that a number of other matters will be taken up at the conference. There is, for instance, the question of agreeing to make no further reductions in the representation of Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

To Mr. Tweedie, and objected to by Mr. Sherren—I am positive the prisoner came to my house, and stayed about twenty minutes, and he had been fishing with Mary Ann, and that he had been broken into and that he had appeared nervous.

The next witness was John W. Garland, whose evidence in substance was as follows: "I reside in Elgin. I heard the last witness, who is my sister. On August 20th I was near her house. I saw Collins, the prisoner, there. He asked me about a horse which belonged to the priest in New Ireland and which had been stolen some time between Saturday night and Monday morning.

Mr. Sherren—the prisoner was coming out of Mrs. Leaman's house when I saw him. I told him I had seen no horse. We were talking some time between fifteen minutes and half an hour. It was the prisoner who detained me, and not me him. He walked off at an ordinary pace.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 10.—The Canadian immigration authorities have secured the arrest in Indiana of a man named Kellogg, who has been using the reputation of Canadian lands for the purpose of obtaining money illegally.

MAN IN WATER 8 HOURS 200 MILES AT SEA, FAILED TO DROWN

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Few tales of the sea can take lighter hold on the imagination than one which was related yesterday when the Carpathia, of the Cunard line, arrived from Mediterranean ports. It was of a man plunging head first into the sea at night time, with two hundred miles of the nearest land, of eight black and fearsome hours in the water, and being finally picked up with his head lolling over a circular life buoy, and returning to consciousness, of finding himself on board another vessel carrying him straight to his original destination.

This man, who had sought to drown himself, was described as being the most disconsolate ever rejected by the sea. It was his extreme weakness which caused Mr. Hodgson, purser of the Carpathia, to give ear to his plaint before the departure of the vessel on her last outward trip. The man, who was identified himself as Paul Sider, 22 years old, asked for a position as interpreter, that he might work his way to Naples. He said a letter from his old home in France, informed him that his wife had disappeared with their only child. He added that he had been in this country two years trying to save money to bring them to him, and now he wished to return to his old home and take up a search for them.

At once a life buoy was tossed from the ship, the life boat's crew dashed to the station, the engines were stopped and reversed, and every chair of the structure has been ornamented. There has been a lavish use of bunting and evergreens, and some very pretty effects have been produced.

Commencing at the entrance the Sussex Institute has taken a large gallery, which has been comfortably fitted up for the use of members of members and the public. Writing materials, etc., have been provided and the whole space is comfortably seated. From there to the stage booths of the exhibiting farms are arranged. The rear is devoted to dining purposes, with the ladies of Trinity church in the rear.

THE SUSSEX RACES

The Sussex exhibition horse races this year promise to be the best seen in the province for years. In the free-for-all the entrance of Gloria, owned by that well known horseman, W. J. Furbush, whose campaigning of Phoenix W. made his name a by-word in the Maritime Provinces, has put the talent on its mettle to pick a winner. Sammasie has won both free-for-alls on the local track but has been defeated abroad by Terrace Queen. The two flyers will have another struggle next week and Boutiller, who likes the Sussex track, should win out. However, the starting of Gloria makes the race look like another thing, and there will be a lot of guessing done. The Sussex track record has been broken once this year, and it promises to go by the board again when these famous races are started. The management is looking for a new maritime record, and with a light track it will probably be established. In the 2.20 and 2.25 classes there are great fields entered, and the 2.15 will be one of the best races ever seen in the Maritime Provinces. Last year the Sussex track had the disadvantage of holding classes in which horses started with records that were prohibitive. This year the records will be made here and the other tracks will have the experience. In the 2.20 class there are a lot of horses starting with no marks, while a year ago the 2.40 class was won by a 2.17 horse. The local races are bound to be interesting, but the management has set apart Friday, September 14th, for these, so that the general public will see all the best classes.
