MARCH 29—Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Miller entertained on Thursday evening, a large number of unarried ladies and gentlemen of the presbyterian shurch. Various games and amusements helped to pleasantly pass the evenling, angrams, of course, forming an attractive feature.

Quite a number of progressive anagram parties have been given during the week. Among the young people of the town this game seems to grow in favor, and at pre-sent seems to be quite popular. Informal, old-tashfoned teap parties seem to be in vogue these last few months, and have greatly taken the place of more formal five o'clock teas, perhaps it is because they are informal, or perhaps it is "the fashion."

sishop of Nova Scotia. And on Easter Sunday special services will be held in most of the churches of town.

The election of Thursday last seemed to be one of the most surring there has been in town for a long time, the day could not have ball the town halls, oversing meetings were have been successful to the town halls, and the sunday of the Yarmouth and Mitton brass bands.

A special service of praise was held in Wesley methodist church school-room on, Sunday afternoon. The programme included vocal solos, duetts and recitations, and was of spical interest.

The clergy men and other temperance workers held a problishion meeting calculations where the sunday and the influential temperance workers of the town, and the meeting was a grand success.

The sympathy of the town, goes out to the relatives and freeds of the late Mr. Chas. Horton, who passed away on baturday last, after a very short liness. Mr. Horton was a well-known and much beloved citiz in, and will be greatly missed in the own.
