

SHERIDAN'S POWDER TO VACCINATE THE COUNTY.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Mr. Fielding Gives Notice of a Motion

TO PROVIDE FOR THE TWO CONTINGENTS Private Members' Day in the Dominion House—Sir Charles Tupper is Going to Put Out a Sarcastic Correspondent—Col. Domville Introduces a Bill to Provide a Canadian Head for the Militia.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—The debate on the address was concluded tonight at 9.10 o'clock. Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Foster were both absent, and when Sir Richard Cartwright closed his arrangement of the opposition tactics, no one was ready on the Conservative side to reply.

Stations to be Established in the Four Parishes. Lancaster Free Vaccination Will Begin on Friday, and in St. Martins, Simonds and Musquash as Soon as Possible—Many Operated on in St. John.

The board of health had a meeting Tuesday, and endorsed the action of the members in connection with the quarantining of Mr. Hugh Tate's house, and in connection with John McNulty, who was placed in the epidemic hospital.

Now. The burdens that the people of Canada were called on to bear were very considerably less when the Conservatives ruled than when the Liberals were in power. Taxation was lower and the population was very much greater than when the Liberals were in power.

ST. ANDREWS NEWS.

Sir William Vanhorn Stocking Ministers Island With Poultry, Horses, Pigs, etc.—Killing Wild Cats—Personal Items.

St. Andrews, Feb. 7.—Sir William Van Horn recently purchased the greater part of a poultry shed at Montreal. The birds will be sent to his St. Andrews farm.

His Old Style of Arrogance

Referring to members of the house and ministers of the crown by their names instead of their constituencies. The house is getting used to this and Mr. Speaker did not call him to order.

Question of the Transvaal War and denied that Sir Charles Tupper was urged by party spirit. It had been urged against the Conservatives that there would have been no criticism against the government on the war if a French-Canadian was not at the head of the government.

Up Race Strife

In this matter. It was idle to say that French Canada was disloyal and did so, but it was done all the same. Mr. Speaker had done it. Such journals as the Province and the Mail.

the state and the wards of the care of every true Canadian. (Cheers.) There were cries of motion and neither of the leaders of the opposition were in their seats and no one being ready to reply to Sir Richard Cartwright's motion was declared carried and the address is there fore adopted.

Ottawa, Feb. 7.—This was private members day in the house. A batch of questions were put and answered and several motions for papers were carried.

Sir Charles Tupper got into another fury over a statement made by a press correspondent that he had attacked the French. Evidently Sir Charles forgot how eloquently he talked the other day of the hostility that Frenchmen had to England and how he tried to show that Hon. Mr. Tarte was in sympathy with these Frenchmen.

Sir Hibbert Tupper put a number of questions upon the Yukon, and Mr. Sifton gave all the information which sufficient grounds for the taxation of the population was lower and the population of the Northwest territories at the present time.

Mr. Sifton also stated that Hon. J. H. Bruce, of the Northwest territories, got $10 per day as remuneration when acting on the Indian commission. By way of expenses he had $1000.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

A Thousand Canadian Volunteers on train, or one-half more than Great Britain asked. Sir Richard Cartwright said that the great strength which the colonies were to Great Britain at the present time.

Cost of the Contingents. Hon. Mr. Fielding has given notice of a resolution to be presented for about the cost of Canada's contribution to the empire in connection with the sending of contingents to aid the British arms in Africa.

This striking photograph represents the three-year-old son of Mrs. Jess Potter of 324 South First Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., who says, under date of Sept. 23, 1899, regarding his cure of a disfiguring face humor: My baby's face was covered with it. We could not lay a pin between the sores on his face and neck, and he was a sight to look at.

Sir Louis Davies has given notice of bills respecting the safety of ships and another to amend the pilotage act. Col. Domville moved that correspondence in the House cease for correspondence regarding the resignation of the seven bolters in the Howell cabinet in 1900.

Mr. McNeil asked if the government was doing anything to help the Lester regiment, which was going to South Africa, at Halifax by Canadian militia and Premier Laurier replied that similar matters were under the consideration of the government.

Sir Charles Tupper received a telegram from Winnipeg stating that the Free Press said that he (Tupper) had attacked the opposition. He became angry and said that he was going to have the correspondent, naming the gentleman who was not in the press gallery at all, expelled.

Premier Laurier said that Mr. Foster had read from a paper yesterday a statement which he never made and Mr. Tupper said that he was going to have the correspondent, naming the gentleman who was not in the press gallery at all, expelled.

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—It was a day wasted in the house today. Sir Charles Tupper, who has been in a high temper since Tuesday last, when his followers turned him down in a caucus yesterday.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Sifton gave all the information which sufficient grounds for the taxation of the population was lower and the population of the Northwest territories at the present time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

Mr. Ingham introduced a bill to amend the franchise act so that no one by reason of his absence in South Africa should be deemed to have been residing in Canada. It was read a first time.

Mr. Borden replied that the attention of the government had been directed to the interview in the press given by Hon. J. H. Bruce regarding the case of Lieut. Col. Hughes.

THE WAR FUNDS.

With public elsewhere an account of the four funds which are being contributed to in this city with respect to the war in South Africa. Two of these funds are local, and two of a more general character.

DEATH OF CAPT. JOHN S. PARKER.

Capt. John S. Parker, at the age of 85 years, died at his residence, Lynmouth street, St. John, N. B., on Monday last. He was one of the best known men in the province and has a world-wide reputation as a ship builder.

WASHINGTON DREW UP THE TREATY.

Washington, Feb. 7.—It is learned that the text of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty was the work of the State Department. The British government accepted the document just as it was drawn, so the responsibility for whatever is contained in the treaty, and the form in which it is expressed, is chargeable entirely to the department.

NOVA SCOTIA VESSEL WRECKED.

Nassau, N. S., Feb. 6.—News has just been received here that the British barkentine vessel, Captain A. D. Faulkner, which sailed from Pictou, N. S., on Monday, was wrecked at Riding Rock on Saturday night. The crew and material of the vessel were saved.

THE FRIENDS OF FRIENDSHIP.

The usual proof of friendship is the recall by friends of all the scandalous things about previous friends.—[Ex.]

GLoucester FISHERMEN IN TROUBLE.

Liverpool, N. S., Feb. 6.—The Gloucester schooner Fannie S. Orne went ashore in a gale last night and caught fire. She has since been floated and the fire extinguished, but is considerably damaged.

Kate Claxton, the actress, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of $10,700 and assets of $100 in clothing, and an accident policy for $12,000 taken out in her favor by her husband, Charles E. Stevenson, also a bankruptcy petitioner.