

your confirmation to that important office this year, the names of Rev. James G. Hennigar; and we also solicit your favourable consideration of the name of Rev. Charles Stewart, D. D., for the Co-Delegate's Chair. The Rev. Dr. Scott, whose services in the past are gratefully acknowledged, is requested to represent us this year also in the British Conference. Our beloved brethren, the Revs. Thomas Angwin and George S. Milligan, A. M., being about to visit the British Conference, are recommended to your affectionate regard.

In our national relation we continue most loyally attached to the illustrious royal Lady whom we are ever proud to call our Queen. In religious affection, while we cultivate a spirit of the broadest catholicity, the family of Methodism is specially endeared to us. And in every heart, we cherish more and more as time and grace mature our strength and spiritual confidence, the determination to hold and defend "the faith once delivered to the saints."

Fathers and Brethren we again commend ourselves to your solicitude, as a branch of the great family of which you are the head under Christ. And we, in your behalf, will address the throne of the heavenly grace, that wisdom, and influence and prosperity may be ever afforded to you.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference

HENRY POPE, JUNIOR,
President.

DUNCAN D. CURRIE,
Secretary.

St. John, N. B., June 29, 1871.