

General Regulations.

Every student is expected to be gentlemanly in his deportment at all times and in all places ; to faithfully observe the hours for study and recreation ; to be prompt at the opening exercises each day ; to properly observe the Sabbath, and attend public worship and Bible Class ; to be punctual at every recitation, or send a written statement explaining why he is not there ; to be orderly and quiet about the building ; to be respectful to teachers ; to make faithful effort to perform every duty assigned ;—such, in the main, are the regulations of the School, and every student who applies for admission is received only on condition of agreeing to the same. Students are forbidden to use fire arms of any kind or to have them in their keeping, while members of the Academy.

A list of general regulations is placed in the hands of the students.

Daily Record.

A record of deportment and scholarship is kept, and will be forwarded to parents and guardians at the end of each term, if desired. The deportment record will not only determine in part the standing of students as such, but also in part their admission to College. A wholesome discipline is maintained.

Disregard of Academic regulations, improper conduct of any kind, and inattention to study, will be promptly dealt with.

Students whose habits are damaging to the welfare of the School will be removed, if milder disciplinary measures fail to effect reform ; the design being to protect the diligent and well-disposed rather than reform the indolent and vicious. Should a student, not having used tobacco before joining the School, begin the practice while in attendance, his parents will be requested to remove him.

Parents are requested not to send a boy, habitually indolent or unmanageable at home.
