

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the same was resolved in the affirmative, and

Ordered accordingly.

The Honorable Mr. Vidal presented to the House a Bill intituled "An Act for the relief of Henry William Peterson."

The said Bill was read for the first time.

The Honorable Mr. Vidal moved, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Aikins,

That the said Bill be read a second time on the fifth day of March next, and that notice thereof be fixed on the Doors of this House, and Senators summoned, and that the said Henry William Peterson may be heard by his Counsel at the Second Reading, to make out the truth of the allegations of the said Bill, and that Emma Grange may have a copy of the said Bill, and that Notice be given to her of said Second Reading, or sufficient proof adduced of the impossibility of so doing, and that she be at liberty to be heard by her Counsel what she may have to offer against the said Bill at the same time.

That the said Henry William Peterson do attend this House on Friday, the fifth day of March next, in order to his being examined on the Second Reading of the said Bill, if the House shall think fit, whether there has or has not been any collusion, directly or indirectly on his part, relative to any act of adultery that may have been committed by his wife, or whether there be any collusion directly or indirectly between him and his wife or any other person or persons touching the said Bill of Divorce, or touching any Action at Law which may have been brought by him against any person for criminal conversation with her, the said Henry William Peterson's wife.

And also, whether at the said time of the adultery of which he complains, she was by Deed, or otherwise by his consent, living separately and apart from and released by him, as far as in him lay, from her conjugal duty, or whether she was at the time of such adultery cohabiting with him and under the protection and authority of him as her husband.

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the same was, on a division, resolved in the affirmative, and

Ordered accordingly.

The Honorable Mr. Simpson, from the Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Commons on the Printing of Parliament, presented their second Report.

Ordered, That it be received, and the same was then read by the Clerk as follows:—

COMMITTEE ROOM,
18th February, 1875.

The Joint Committee of both Houses on the Printing of Parliament, beg leave to submit as their second Report, the Report of their Sub-Committee appointed to audit the Printing Accounts, together with the Report of the Clerk of the Committee on the Printing Services of the past year, and "The Printing Account Annual Balance Sheet," all of which they respectfully recommend to the consideration of both Houses.

The Committee would especially draw attention to that part of the Clerk's Report, and that of the Sub-Committee, relative to the tender for the binding—the Committee respectfully recommend that the substitution, as therein asked for by Mr. Grisson, namely,—the name of Mr. O'Donaghue for that of Mr. Fréchette be granted, provided that the necessary security be forthwith entered into.

All which is respectfully submitted.

J. SIMPSON,
Chairman.
