18

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons occupying or possessing any enclosed lands near any Toil-house or Toll-gate which shall be erected in pursuance of this Act, shall knowingly permit or 5 suffer any person or persons to pass through such lands, or through any gate, passage or way thereon, with any carriage, horse, mare, gelding or other animal liable to the payment of Toll, whereby such payment shall be 10 avoided, every person or persons so offending and also the person riding or driving the animal or animals or carriage whereon such payment is avoided, being thereof convicted, shall for every such offence, severally forfeit 15 and pay any sum not exceeding twenty-five shillings, which shall belong to the proprietors of the said road, and may be recovered in the manner hereinbefore provided.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That all per- 20 sons, horses or carriages going to, or attending or returning from any funeral of any person, or going to or returning from divine service on the Lord's day, shall pass the gates free of Toll. 25

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the said Marc Antoine Primeaux and Antoine A. Trottier, their heirs and legal representatives, at any time after the passing of this Act and under and by virtue of its provisions, shall 30 and may construct, erect and build a road as aforesaid, and also that the said road contemplated by this Act shall not in any degree interfere with or encroach upon any fee simple, right or private easement or privilege 35 of any individual now holding and enjoying the same or entitled thereto, without permission first had and obtained by the consent of the owner thereof, or by virtue of reference to arbitration authorised by this Act. - 40

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That whenever the said Tolls shall in the annual receipts exceed in amount a sum sufficient to