BASKETBALL

It looks like the year of the guard in the Western Canada Intercollegiate Athletic Association basketball conference. Rookie Randy Milner of the University of Lethbridge Chinooks and veteran Dale Galan of the University of Calgary Dinosaurs are waging a hot batle for the conference scoring title and both are back court

Latest league statistics show Lethbridge's Milner with 102 points in seven games-one point ahead of Galan who has played only five games. They share the league honors in field baskets with 42 but Milner has connected on one more free throw. Milner has taken 106 shots, more than anyone else. Galan is hitting at a rate just below 50 per cent with his 42 connections in 85 tries.

Barrie King of the University of Winnipeg Wesmen holds down third place with 96 points while Saskatchewan's Tom Goss and 1968-69 runner-up Rich Macey of Winnipeg have 95 points each. Last year's scoring champion, Terry Ball of the Manitoba Bisons, has scored only 52 points in five games.
