Cagers hit road

The Golden Bears and Pandas basketball teams will leave the comforts of home tomorrow to enter Vancouver's hostile environment for weekend series with the University of British Columbia.

Barry Mitchelson is expecting his Bears to rebound from last Saturday's 60-58 loss to Victoria, their first in eight games.

U of A will have to return to their usual good form in order to handle the Thunderbirds, one of three teams tied for second place. Bears will have to improve their rebounding in particular to neutralize Mike MacKay, UBC's, 6'11" centre.

Pandas' coach Kathy Broderick is expecting nothing but trouble from Thunderettes.

UBC traditionally has an excellent team - they've won the national title the last two years - and this season is no exception. Led by Liz Silcott, a national team member, they're currently in second place in the Canada West University Athletic Association with a 5-1 record.

Bears make changes

Clare Drake is playing musical Bears with his forwards this week in an attempt to instill some life into a rather listless hockey team. He has almost completely shuffled his lines, trying such tactics as moving Rick Wyrozub to centre position, and Bruce Crawford from centre to wing. John Horcoff (pictured in the no. 10 jersey) was Drake's most consistent forward in last weekend's fiasco split with U of Calgary Dinosaurs. (Alberta took the Saturday match 5-1, then dropped a 4-3 decision Sunday.) Bears will host U of Saskatchewan Huskies this weekend in Varsity Arena.

Gymnasts swinging

The U of A Panda and Bear gymnastic teams will be in action this weekend hosting the University of Calgary teams in the main gym at 2:00 p.m. this Sunday.

The U of A teams haven't had too much in the way of competition yet this year and Francis Tally, men's coach, feels that this met will give them some. Darryl Howe of Calgary distinguished himself two years ago by placing second in the Junior National finals.

Colin Lorback and Brian Smith of U of A are both excellent all around gymnasts and form the backbone of the Bear squad.

Ian Buttar, Rob Chisholm and Steve Latta of the U of A will be competing in their first all around meet.

For Pandas, Lenka Svatek and Barb Rutherford are the two outstanding performers but Joan Baxter has shown a great deal of improvement since the beginning of the year.

Pandas will be going to Eugene, Oregon, for a meet on Saturday and returning Saturday night to get back in time for Sunday's meet.

Men's Intramurals

Welcome to Iceland. Despite the cold Intramurals must go on with one exception, Cross Country Skiing. We apologize for the inconvenience caused because of the postponement and we plan on having the race this Saturday, same time same place, weather permitting.

On Sunday, the Co Rec Badminton Tournament starts. The schedule for the tournament will be posted across from the Men's Intramural Office. We hope that the weather will not discourage those of you entered from participating.

Deadlines for next week are: wrestling on Monday, Jan 21 (weigh - in 7-9 p.m.), and on Tuesday the Bowling and Field Hockey entries are due.

Basketball is quickly drawing to a close with the final games in each division scheduled for Monday night. Also on Monday night 3 on 3 basketball starts and the schedule will be posted as soon as possible.

Co - Rec Inner Tube Water Polo started on Wednesday with a lot of action. When scheduled to play please show up a little ahead of time so that all of the games will be able to start on time.
