	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday
7:00		Daybreak I with Linda Goleniac Sootie yourself into your slippers with Linda's early morning blend of light jazz and smooth rock.	Morning Mutant Show with Prof Z Where even the quietest morning may mutate horribly. Nostalgic & modern alternative rock.	7:00 Allergic to Morning with Carol Ann McDevitt Depending on how the DJ feels the night before, music can range from dandy electro-pop to grey stuff.
9:00	NEWS	NEWS	NEWS	9:00 NEWS
11:00	Student Circle Music and news for our Chinese speaking friends.	Hot Spot with T.B. Anzus A time slot so hot one can handle it on a regular basis. Surprise yourself with differing musical treats.	Abstract Sound with Thomas B. Andover Something different everytime ... kitchen appliances one minute, concrete socks the next. Music? It's up to you.	Marathon Man with Brent Curtis Taking you from breakfast through lunch, Brent helps you over the week blahs. Lots of Canadian and light refreshing tunes to pep up and give you the energy to last the week.
11:30	Sunday Brunch with Debbie Curtis Ease into a quiet afternoon before being gripped by Monday's horror once more.	Stuff with Mike Tucker Well it's sort of a little of this and a little of that and a lot of stuff besides.	Unidentified Flying Albino Show with Stephen Seabrook A nice way to spend your otherwise boring lunchtime. Playing alternatives from today and yesterday.

1:00		Sharks n' Shrapnel with John Kirkley If you liked the previous stuff, stay tuned, there's piles & piles of stuff to come.	Something With Colour with Lindsay Babstock Groovy tunes with a big swallow of folk, rock, zaaa, and all that stuff! "Requests - please, please, please."
1:30	Searchlight All the best in Christian light spiritual rock.			The Unpleasant Noise with Tiffany Slash A high concentration of music from the 80's. Tiffany guides you through an hour of unprecedented bliss.
2:00	Open Heartland with Bryan Bance Folk music: all forms & traditions from medieval, 60's protests, to the current wave of acoustic revival music.	R &amp; B Skeletons with Deborah Burpee Concentrating on black music with roots in R & B, funk, rap & hip-hop.	I Think I Got The Blues with Scott Dunham Both traditional and contemporary blues are played with special spots almost every week. Requests welcome.	Classical Sounds with Paul Buccell Strings & things to tone & your afternoon. For the sophisticated aficionado and worse!
3:00		Old Fashion Thrashin Show with Bernard Hasselman Hey you! Me? Yeah, watch listenin' to? Hardcore! At supertime? Yeah!	Tuesday Cruise Day with Thomas Paul Up and down the boulevard with the sounds you want to hear.	Weird Science with Prof Z. The prof teaches you what you are all about and proceeds to tell all about you.
4:00
4:30	Africana with Innocent Ezigbalike Traditional, cultural, folk, contemporary & future music from all over Africa. Tidbits of African ancestry.

6:00	Nothing in Particular with Paul & Vicky Music? ... Music?! You bet your sweet bippy! The same kind of music we played last week ... only different!	From A Different Perspective Current affairs journal.	Across the Atlantic News and views from across the pond.	Science Journal Varied and compelling report.
6:30		Porcupine with Kwame Dawes Special literary programme concentrating on poetry and prose with a local emphasis.	Vintage Vinyl with Ray V Classic tracks that will keep you rockin' early evenings. You'll hear all your old favourites and more.	Morbid Silence with James Hamilton An overview of the dark alternative spectrum. Glo trial, power electronics, musique concrete.
7:00		In The Factory with Sash Maicher & Nick Oliver Trance inducing cacophony to decay sanity & twist the brain to new realms of awareness (or maybe an SRC meeting).	Shades of Gray with Michele MacKenzie O.K. letssee, uhm, well ... I play Sam & Dave (soul-type) but I also play Varoshi-Fame (kinda death-rock music) yeah!	New Stuff with Ray V. The good, bad & ugly late Ray'll let you know which Callers may comment.
8:00	The Smooth Herman Show with Hutch & John Alternative smooth and raunchy sounds from the great masters to current stars. Coltrane to Waits. Hutch assures us plants respond quite well to this programme.	Metal Inquisition with Sharon Bardwell Sink your teeth into something that might bite back! Vintage and contemporary heaviness.	The Electric Penguin Show with Rick Thurner Music, drama, funny stuff, salt-her-ring, splash, thump, whap, sizzle (get the picture?)	An Ideal for Living with John A wide range of music from a minded individual. Music ease you into Thursday welcome.
