✓ of all countries will favour some arrangement which will prevent any Nation arming itself beyond a certain limit, and some International organisation for enforcing obedience to this rule. Such a plan will involve the necessity of Neutrals taking action to punish the offender against international laws in the interest of disarmament and peace.

✓ Since dictating above I have been interrupted and have no time now to say more than that I see in the "Times" that the Rockefeller Foundation Trust propose to take some action in behalf of the Belgian people. I enclose a letter from Sir Richard Paget to Sir Ernest Hatch the Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Government to consider what arrangements can be made for the Belgian refugees. It has occurred to me that your Rockefeller Foundation Trust might possibly be inclined to help the work of the voluntary Committee referred to in enclosed letter. You know most of their names; Lord Milner, myself, Henry Vivian; Edward Strutt is the brother of Lord and Rayleigh who is a successful pioneer in agricultural
