TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL

LONDON

May 23rd 1927.

Part II.

In possession of Koling were found number of sealed envelopes addressed with the names of a well known Communist individuals and organizations in this country and America.

These envelopes contained information and directions from the Third International to Communist organizations in this country and America, including the National Minority Movement all of most recent date and showing that the office of Arcos and Trade Delegation has been habitually used as a clearing house for the subversion of correspondence of this nature.

Amongst the subjects dealt with in this correspondence are the Communist Seamen's Club, the hands of China campaign, Anti-Trade Union Bill agitation, the distribution of Communist propaganda and industrial affairs in America.

In the possession of Koling were found also a number of printed application forms for membership of the National Minority Movement, which had been filled in by seamen who had been canvassed for that purpose in Russian ports and whose applications, together with their membership subscriptions, were in the process of transmission through this Russian official channel to the National Minority Movement. Further interesting light thrown upon this particular phase of Soviet activity by a letter dated November 3rd 1926, addressed to Jolinsky, and describing arrangements made for the training of Communist agitators on leaving Arcos ships, with a subsequent dissemination by
