Prime Minister's Remarks to the Canadian Women's Press Club

D 58132

(Suggested points)

Ends and Means -

The End: Preserving Freedom

- (a) of the home and family life;
- (b) of religion;
- (c) to work for social welfare
and human progress.

Issue in war not political but moral; not rival imperialisms or nationalisms;
but evil attacking good.

War effort needs constant emphasis on moral ends: if people understand what we are fighting for, their effort will be spontaneous.

The Means:

1. Part women can play in understanding the moral issue, and in making it clear to whole community.
