

QUESTIONS FOR EXAMINATION.

1. How many kinds of pronouns are there?
2. What are the conj. personal pronouns?
3. How are they used when objects of verbs?
4. What do you know about Le, la, les used as attributes of verb être?
5. What are the disjunctive pronouns?
7. How and when are they used?
8. Conjugate a verb reflexively.
9. What is to be said about en and y? Their translation, position, etc.
10. Give a list of demonstrative pronouns.
11. When are ci and là used? and how?
12. Explain the use of pronoun ce.
13. What are the possessive pronouns and how are they used?
14. Say what you know about relative and interrogative pronouns.
15. Explain the difference between invariable and variable relative pronouns.
16. What kind of words are quel and où?
17. Give a list of indefinite pronouns and the special rule of chacun.
18. What do you know about qui que ce soit qui or que, personne, rien, etc.

RECITATION.

La lanterne et la chandelle.

Une chandelle un jour disait à la lanterne :
 "Pourquoi de ton foyer¹ me faire une prison ?
 Ton vilain œil de bœuf² rend ma lumière terne.
 Ouvre³ toi, qu' à mon gré⁴ j' éclaire⁵ l' horizon.)
 La lanterne obéit, l'autre qu' y gagna-t-elle ?
 Bonsoir ! un coup de vent⁶ a soufflé⁷ la chandelle.

—Le Bailly.

1. fire place. 2. bull's eye. 3 open. 4. will 5. may light. 6. gush of wind. 7. blew out.