DR. MASON GOOD. A.D. 1827.

His hearing having become much impaired, his friend, Mr. Russell, called to him in a loud tone of voice, "Behold the Lamb of God!" This roused him, and with the energy of a dying believer, he terminated the sentence, "which taketh away the sin of the world." These were his last words.

ROBERT GLOVER. A.D. 1557.

(A Martyr.)

When within sight of the stake, he was suddenly so filled with a sense of God's love and presence, that he clapped his hands, crying out to his friend, "Austin, He is come; He is come!"

CARDINAL MAZARIN. A.D. 1661.

"Oh, my poor soul! What will become of thee? Whither wilt thou go? Were I to live again, I would be a capuchin rather than a courtier."
