

vi.

Author's work upon the subject. The initials "S. A." after the name "Moore" implies that there are two or more of this name, and that the "Moore" with the initials "S. A." is the one referred to.

The remaining points in connection with the Index of Subjects are such as will be readily apprehended by the reader.

In concluding, let me express the hope that the future compiler of the catalogue of this Law Library will, after having eliminated the many imperfections which undoubtedly exist in this work, at least find himself possessed of a basis upon which a more perfect work may be fabricated with ease.

It affords me much pleasure to state that, in the preparation of this catalogue, I have been extended great courtesy and kindness by His Majesty's Printer, Colonel Walfenden, L.S.O., V.D.

Believe me,

Dear Mr. Maclean,

Your very obedient servant,

C. F. DAVIE.
