THIS SOUVENIR contains some Views of the wonderful Cyclorama of Jerusalem on the day of the Crucifixion, now on exhibition in Montreal.

A few years ago Herr Bruno Piglhein, the distinguished German painter, in company with a body of learned men, left Europe for Palestine to make researches and gather data for a Cyclorama that should stand at the head of all cycloramic art. The result is the world-renowned Cyclorama of Jerusalem on the day of the Crucifixion, which has been open to the public in the city of Munich
