

shall be adopted; but any of the By-Laws may, at any regular meeting, be temporarily suspended by a vote in the affirmative of two-thirds of the members present.

Article 15.—Respect.

It is particularly enjoined that all members of the Division shall treat each other during its sittings with all true delicacy and respect, and that ungenerous remarks, personal allusions, or sarcastic language be carefully avoided, by which the feelings of any brother may be wounded, and the most prominent objects of our Institution, Temperance, Benevolence and Harmony, be diminished or interrupted, and that all our discussions be conducted in that spirit of candour, moderation and open generosity which leads men to the altar of concord and good fellowship, and it shall be the duty of the W. P. to repress everything to the contrary.

Article 16.—Regalia.

Sec. 1. The regalia shall be the property of the Division. Brothers ceasing to be members of this Division shall not be entitled to draw a regalia.

Article 17.—Fines.

Sec. 1. All fines imposed by the Constitution and these By-Laws, or Rules of Order, not otherwise provided for, shall be charged, and may be otherwise dealt with, as provided for in Sec. 1 of Art. 2 of the By-Laws.

Article 18.—Representatives to Grand Division, how and when Elected.

Sec. 1. The Division, at the first regular meeting in October, annually (and at any other intermediate term throughout the year if need be) shall ballot separately, and with ball ballots, for Representatives to the Grand Division. The W. P. and all P. W. P.'s, shall be eligible to be elected to represent us in the G. Division.

Sec. 2. The Division shall pay to the Representatives to the Grand Division, a sufficient sum to pay all necessary expenses.

Sec. 3. No representative shall be elected to the Grand Division, during the interval between the regular annual elections for representatives, without a dis-
