

Vol. CCCI.—Continued.

- |                                                                                                                                                      | Pages                     |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| before the Select Committee on the British Museum; with an appendix, containing heads of inquiry respecting the improvement of the Museum.....       | London, 1836....60        |
| 3. Millard, John. Letter containing a plan for the better management of the British Museum. Second edition.....                                      | 1836....28                |
| 4. Acts and Votes of Parliament relating to the British Museum, with the statutes and rules thereof, and the succession of Trustees and Officers.... | London, 1828. pp.156      |
| 5. Papers relative to the project of building a General Record Office. With Plans.....                                                               | London, 1835. pp xiv...81 |

Vol. CCCII. [Bastardy and Poor-laws. 1833-34.]

- |                                                                                                                                    |                           |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Beecher, Rev. John Thomas. Letter on the alteration and amendment of the laws relating to Bastardy.....                         | London, 1834....32        |
| 2. The principles of delegated, central and special authority, applied to the Poor-laws Amendment Bill.....                        | London, 1834...16         |
| 3. Extracts from the information received by His Majesty's Commissioners, as to the administration and operation of the Poor-laws. | London, 1833. pp. xxi.432 |

Vol. CCCIII. [Corn Laws. 1826-34.]

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Whitmore, W. W. Letter upon the Corn laws. Second edition.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | London, 1826...84         |
| 2. Free trade in Corn the real interest of the Landlord, and the true policy of the State. By a Cumberland Land-owner....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | London, 1828....83        |
| 3. Hall, Geo. Webb. Review of the various sources of National Wealth, and a reply to a recent publication of Lord Milton against the Corn laws.....                                                                                                                                                                                                           | London, 1832....56        |
| 4. Compendium of the laws regulating and restricting the importation, exportation and consumption of Foreign Corn from 1660; and a series of accounts from the date of the earliest official-records; shewing the operation of the several statutes, the average prices of corn, &c., &c., presenting a complete view of the Corn trade of Great Britain..... | London, 1833....71        |
| 5. Hume, J. D. Letters on the Corn laws and on the rights of the working classes, showing the injustice and impolicy of the owners of the lands increasing, artificially, the money value of their exclusive estates, by means of arbitrary charges made on the rest of the people for the necessaries of life. With an autograph letter from the author..... | London, 1834....49        |
| 6. Scherer, F. A form of petition to the Upper House, against any alterations of the Corn law.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | London, 1833. pp. iv...24 |
| 7. Remarks on the averages of Hamburg and on the Commercial policy of Great Britain towards Prussia and other Northern States.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | London, 1833....74        |